BE SURE AND COME TONIGHT - "MESSAGES FROM THE DEAD"

70 ATTEND SEW; TWO BAPTIZED!

A new high for attendance at the Sunday evening service was set last Lord's Day evening as 70 attended to hear the lesson on "Marriage and Divorce".

As the invitation song was being sung, Mrs. T. I. Cartwright came forward, and at the conclusion made the Good Confession. She and Mrs. Wilford Cartwright, who had previously made the confession, were buried in baptism at the conclusion of the service. We wish for them both a long and useful life in the service of the Savior.

This brings to three the number baptized at Warners Chapel since January 1.

SONG SERVICE TONIGHT

We are getting ready for our meeting which is scheduled to begin July 6.

Tonight at 7:30 we will begin our series of song services to better our singing for this meeting. This service will last approximately 30 minutes. The lesson for the evening will be presented from 8:00 until 8:30.

We believe this will be a profitable hour for us all; won't you come and be with us tonight from 7:30 'till 8:30?

LESSONS FOR SUNDAY

To quicken our interest in singing, the sermon for the 11:00 A. M. service will be entitled "There's More Than Music In A Song".

Sunday evening, "Messages From The Dead" will be the topic for discussion.

THE KEYHOLE REPORTER

We are very sorry to hear that Mrs. Kuykendall's father passed away Wednesday morning. The Kuykendalls left for Tennessee immediately.

We were glad to have back with us last Sunday the following: Avor Harper, Viva Warner, Mrs. Vesta Holder, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Holder and family. We hope they will be among our number of regular attendants from now on.

Tom Pegram was a visitor Sunday night.

Bro. Wilford Cartwright and wife Janie were back with us Sunday.

SUNDAY ATTENDANCE

We are sorry that we did not get the exact number present at SMW last week. Our "Counter" got hung up in the crowd and did not get to the door in time. It is estimated, however, that 140 were present. The other records, though, are in tact. Eighty attended SMBS; 70 SEW and 36 attended MWBS.

DEVOTIONAL

Miller Cartwright will read the devotional for us at the Devotional period Sunday Morning. Want you have your Bibles ready and read it with him. We believe that this will prepare you for the lesson.
