Withdrawing Fellowship

The following is from Bob Winton's Commentary on Thessalonians.

2 Thessalonians 3:6-15: Instructions Regarding Discipline and Other Exhortations.

1. Verse 6: "Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received of us." This withdrawal of fellowship is to be directed toward any brother who walks disorderly. Vine gives the following definition of the Greek term:

1) Adjective: "Ataktos (ataktos) signifies not keeping order (a, negative, tasso, to put in order, arrange); it was especially a military term, denoting not keeping rank, insubordinate; it is used in 1 Thess. 5:14, describing certain church members who manifested an insubordinate spirit, whether by excitability or officiousness or idleness."

2) Adverb: "Ataktos (ataktos) signifies disorderly, with slackness (like soldiers not keeping rank), 2 Thess. 3:6; in ver. 11 it is said of those in the church who refused to work, and became busybodies (cp. 1 Tim. 5:13)."

3) Verb: "Atakteo (ataktew) signifies to be out of rank, out of one's place, undisciplined, to behave disorderly: in the military sense, to break rank; negatively in 2 Thess. 3:7, of the example set by the Apostle and his fellow-missionaries, in working for their bread while they were at Thessalonica so as not to burden the saints" (Vol. 1, p.320).

2. To walk disorderly is to be out of step with the "tradition which he received of us." The tradition which Paul delivered was the inspired gospel.

—Paul

WHY GO TO WORSHIP?

A churchgoer wrote a letter to the editor of a newspaper and complained that it made no sense to go to church every week. “I’ve gone for 30 years now,” he wrote, “and in that time I have heard something like 3,000 sermons. But for the life of me, I can’t remember a single one of them. So, I think I’m wasting my time....”

This started a controversy in the “Letters to the Editor” column, much to the delight of the editor. It went on for weeks until someone wrote this clincher:

I’ve been married for 30 years now. In that time my wife has cooked some 32,000 meals. But, for the life of me, I cannot recall the entire menu for a single one of those meals. But I do know this ... they all nourished me and gave me the strength I needed to do my work. If my wife had not given me these meals, I would be physically dead today. Likewise, if I had not gone to church for nourishment, I would be spiritually dead today!”

“Thy words were found, and I did eat them; and thy word was unto me the joy and rejoicing of mine heart...” Jeremiah 15:16
