PLANS BEING DRAWN FOR BUILDING

At the regular Business Meeting last Sunday, Bros. Parks Messick, Herman Landreth and Furches Messick were appointed to draw plans for the preacher's home. The house is to be of brick veneer and built on the lot recently purchased, across the road from the church building.

The committee will have the plans ready to submit for approval on December 7th.

BUSINESS MEETING

There will be a short called business meeting immediately after the morning service.

Men, please attend!

HOLDER FUNERAL

Funeral services were held last Sunday Afternoon at 3:00 in the Lewisville Baptist Church for J.E. Holder. Bro. Johnson assisted in the services.

Mr. Holder was the father of Bro. Rufus Holder and the father-in-law of Sis. Nora Holder. We extend to them our sympathy.

COME TONIGHT!

WINSTON-SALEM BUILDING

We are glad to see the church building in Winston-Salem going up so rapidly. We know they are anxious to see it completed, as they need it so badly. Lots rejoice with them.

RAIN DIDN'T STOP 63

In spite of the downpour which began sometime before and lasted through the service Sunday Night, 63 attended the service. It is wonderful to see people putting forth a little more effort to serve the Lord. Were you among the ones who didn't want to get wet?

TENNESSEE ORPHAN HOME

Sometime ago the church here sent two large boxes of clothing to the orphan's Home at Spring Hill, Tenn. A letter was received from the Home, but was lost before it could be copied into the bulletin. The letter has been found and is as follows:

Springhill, Tennessee
May 26, 1947

Warners Chapel Church of Christ
Rt. 1,
Clemmons, N. C.

Dear Friends:

We want to thank you and the church for the clothing which is a great help here.

We now have 111 boys and girls in the Home and they are fine.

Sincerely,
/s/ W. B. Richter, Supt.
TENNESSEE ORPHAN HOME

BUILDING FUND TODAY

BUILDING FUND DAY

Today's contribution goes in the Building Fund. Now, as we have taken another step toward securing the building we believe you will want to put forth an extra effort. Do you? If you do, show it by making an extra large contribution.

NEWS

The following visitors were with us Sunday Morning! Bro. & Sis. Marchant of Jacksonville, Florida & Mrs. Monroe Speas of Winston-Salem. We were very glad to have them with us and hope they will be with us as often as possible.

We were glad to have Sis. Stewart back with us Sunday after an absence of several weeks.

BIBLE A GUIDEPPOST

"No, sir. I buy only useful things, What's that book good for, anyhow?" said a French peasant to a colporteur who was trying to sell him a copy of the New Testament.

"What is a signpost good for?" queried the colporteur.

"To tell the man about the way he is going," said the Frenchman.

"Quite true," was the reply. "That's what the New Testament is good for. It tells a man the way to get to heaven."

The peasant purchased a copy. Within three months he was telling other men "the way to get to heaven."

The spirit of the Bible, as a guidopost by itself alone, is self-propagating, capable of creating human walking and talking guidoposts wherever it gets an opportunity to implant itself in the hearts of men.
