HAVE A HAPPY FATHER'S DAY

Today is Father's Day. What is your father like? Is he a good dad? Is he one who loves you, spends time with you, and teaches you needful things? Is he a terrible dad? Is he one who despises you, spends time abusing you, and teaches you how to hate and be cruel? Is he a dad who isn't there: Has he abandoned you, ignored you? Does it seem like he doesn't even know you exist? Is he one that teaches you loneliness and resentment?

Are YOU a father? Which one these three are you? Well, what do your kids say?

Most folks have a good dad. They may not be perfect fathers but they are good just the same. Is your father still living? Can you tell him how much he means to you? The Bible says, "Honor thy father ..." (Ephesians 6:2). One of the best ways to do that is to live the kind of life that reflects the love he has for you.

You know, it's the same way with our Heavenly Father. We need to honor Him by living the kind of life that reflects His love for us. Make your Father happy. Let Him know you love Him. Have a happy "Father's Day".

—Frank

IS IT ONLY A MATTER OF INTERPRETATION?

Oftentimes people will say, “It doesn’t really matter what you believe as long as you are honest and sincere.” They say, “We all believe in the same God and the same Lord.” Or, “It doesn’t matter what church one may belong to.” Some one might say, “It’s just that we interpret the scripture differently, and we are all headed to the same destination, we are just taking different roads.”

This would be wonderful if the Scriptures supported these views. But the fact is the divinely inspired Word of God tells us something entirely different. In 2 Peter 1:19-21 we are told that we would do well to heed the confirmed Word and that “no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation. For the prophecy came not by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost.” The great apostle Paul says that, “All scripture is given by the inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect thoroughly furnished unto all good works” (2 Timothy 3:16-17).

In Matthew 7, Jesus said that many will travel the broad way that leads to destruction, and few will put forth the effort to travel the narrow road that leads to life eternal. Later in the same chapter, He said many will call on Him as Lord and tell Him all the good things they have done and He will announce that He doesn’t know them and even calls them the “workers of iniquity.” Why did He not recognize them? Because they had not put forth the effort to know His will and then to follow it.

Who do you suppose these people are? Obviously, religious people who thought they were doing great things for the Lord, but were not letting His will be their guide in what they were doing. In Luke 6:46, Jesus asked the question, “Why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the thing which I say?”

It is simply not a matter of what suits my fancy, or what I would like for it to say. Jesus, as head of His church, has given instructions we must follow, if we ever expect to be pleasing to Him. We are told in Galatians 1 that we dare not accept some different teachings as the Gospel of Christ, even if it should come from an angel from Heaven. Read Galatians, Chapter 1.

OUR SICK Please Remember In Your Prayers

Tim Allen underwent shoulder surgery this past week. He is at home recuperating and reported to be doing well at this time.

Wyatt Reeves has been ill lately and has been unable to attend services.

It was reported that Paul Kirkpatrick was not feeling well this past week and was unable to attend services Wednesday evening.

Don Turnmire, a past preacher at Warners Chapel, is in very critical condition at this time due to cancer. He lives in Abbingdon, Va.

Also, Elmer Laudenslager's mother, Lynette Laudenslager, is having a great deal of difficulty at this time with kidney failure. She is presently undergoing dialysis and is being tested to see if the kidney implant she had is functioning correctly.

Prayers are requested for the Shane Robinson Family. Jennifer's aunt recently passed away at a very young age and Shane's mother was recently admitted to the hospital with serious health issues. She has been released from the hospital recently. Most of the congregation will remember Shane and Jessica as past members at Warners Chapel.

Prayers have been requested for the Townsend Family by Joe Byrd. The Townsend family lost their 4 year old daughter Peyton to an accident where a headstone fell on her while playing in a church cemetery.

The Prayer List is available on the credenza in the foyer.

CONGRATULATIONS TO...

Shane and Jennifer Robinson who are the proud parents of a new baby girl, Mia Alice Robinson born Tuesday, June 12th, weighing 8 lbs. 5 oz.

THE GREATEST GIFT any man can leave his children is their mother's time. But how much time could a mother devote to her children if their father died prematurely, and she had to work for her own living and theirs? If they ever lost you, Dad, they would lose ... a husband ... a father ... and an income.

Happy Father's Day!
