"ONLY ONE WAY TO WIN THE PRIZE"

Aristotle was said to have said, "It is possible to fail in many ways ... while to succeed is possible in only one way." I don't know what the philosopher had in mind in speaking of the one way to success then, but I know what the one way to success is today. It's through Jesus Christ.

Jesus said, "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me." John 14:6. In this statement Jesus clearly implies that every person must come to the Father, and that the only way to do that is through Jesus Christ, God's only begotten Son.

No matter how successful one is in the earthly endeavors, if he fails spiritually, his failure has eternal consequences. Jesus said, "For what profit is it to a man if he gains the whole world and loses his own soul? Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul?" Matthew 16:26.

The wonderful thing about the "Christian race," as it's called in Hebrews 12:1, is that all who enter it through obedience to the teachings of Christ, and who run faithfully to the end, is that they will receive a "crown of righteousness," 2 Timothy 4:8.

Just as there is only one way to win the prize in a physical race, there is only one way to win the prize in the spiritual race.

OUR SICK

Please Remember in your prayers

Virginia Elam, Clarence Sheets, and Rebecca Allen were unable to attend Wednesday evening services because of health problems.

It was reported Wednesday evening that Cathy Hutchins has injured one of her shoulders and is in considerable pain.

Rose Whitt, Andy Santiago's sister, received the results from her biopsy and they were good. Thank you for the prayers on her behalf.

Cody Dover's grandmother, Betty Wright, will be undergoing extensive cancer surgery in the near future.

The Prayer List is available on the credenza in the foyer. The prayer list consists of others we need to remember in our prayers in addition to those listed above.

Request for Prayers

Roger Allen was unable to attend services Wed. evening because his hours have been changed at the post office. There is a possibility that in about a month, he will have to start working either every or every other Sunday. He has asked for your prayers on his behalf in dealing with these changes.

Thank You!

Carmen Parker says thank you for the prayers for my father. Today he saw the doctor and received a good report.

Congratulations To . . .

D. C. Mock who became a Great Grandpa to an 8 lb. 7 oz. baby boy. His name is Rocky Everett Majka.

Atheism, The Darkness of

I read a story one time of an Atheist who was wishing for something in the past that he had lost, because of Atheism...Here is the story... (This came from the writings of JW McGarvey)

I would gladly give away all I am, and all I ever may become, all the years, every one of them, which may be given me to live, but for one week of my old childhood's faith, to go back to calm and peace again, and then to die in hope?? Oh, for one look of the blue sky, as it looked then when we called it heaven! The old family prayers, which taught us to reverence prayer, however little we understood its meaning, the far dearer private prayers at our own bedside, the dear friends for whom we prayed, the still calm Sunday with its best clothes and tiresome services, which we little thought were going so deep into our hearts when we thought them so long and tedious; yes, it is among these so trifling seeming scenes, these, and a thousand more, that our faith has wound among our heartstrings; and it is the thought of these scenes now which threatens me with madness as I call them up again.
