Obedience To The Gospel Is The Breakdown of Man

When you think about each step of Obeying the Gospel, it is really just a breakdown of man. When you think about Hearing the Gospel (Rom. 10:17), it is the willingness to listen to another other than yourself. When you Believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God (Jn. 3:16, 8:24), then you have now been led through evidence that there is One who is higher than us and we are being held to Him and His word. Repentance (Lk. 13:3,5, Acts 17:30) is when you begin applying those words to your life and begin changing your allegiance to Christ and His words resulting in a change of your actions. You stop serving your will but the will of Christ. When you Confess (Matt. 10:32-33), you publicly make your faith acknowledged. Then you are Baptized for the remission of your sins (Acts 22:16, Mk. 16:16, 1 Pet. 3:21), which shows your utmost acceptance of the will of Christ to your life. You are willing to do what He commands us to do. It is at this time that we are in contact with the blood of Christ (Eph. 1:7), are created a new creature (2 Cor. 5:17), and walk in newness of life (Rom. 6:3-4). From this point on, you are Living and Professing the Gospel in your life (Rev. 2:10).

Have we obeyed the Gospel?

Have we broken ourselves down to full acceptance of God and His will?

If not, today is your day to respond.

- Wes Garland
