“Marriage: Defiled or Undefiled?”

*Next Saturday the Sixth Annual NCSBS Lectureship will be taking place. Hebrews 13:4 is the verse that is the basis for our lectureship. “Marriage is honorable among all, and the bed undefiled; but fornicators and adulterers God will judge.”

There is not a single person who has not been affected by the civil and social changes made in our American society today. Our courts have “legalized” sexual immorality and our society has embraced that immorality as if it were the most natural way to live. It is the “natural man” that lives that way. By that it is meant that it is the opposite of living a spiritual life. It is a way that leads to death – spiritually, and often physically as well.

If you are a Christian, your choice of lifestyle has been attacked, assaulted and ridiculed. The pressure to live like the world has increased greatly from the standpoint of “social media.” You can see anything, anytime, anywhere, and you are narrow-minded bigoted and intolerant for not wanting to.

How to deal with these issues is the purpose of our lectureship. If you are married, single, divorced, widowed, young, old, male or female, you will benefit from hearing these lectures. The question then becomes, “Will you?” We hope to see you here next Saturday at the sixth annual NCSBS lectureship.

The Elders Corner:

MORE IS CAUGHT THAN TAUGHT

If a child is taught that he is his own authority, he will look upon all other authority with disrespect. If a child is taught that God and His word are final authority, he will look upon all authority emanating from Him with respect.

If a child is taught he is part of the theory of evolution, he will look upon himself as an advanced animal. If a child is taught that he is created in the image of God, he will look upon himself as an immortal soul.

If a child sees the Bible is only read in church assemblies, he will look upon it as unrelated to daily life. If a child sees the Bible read and obeyed in his house and education, he will look upon it as a guide to life and eternity.

If a child is taught that there is no absolute truth, he will look upon morals as a subject to his emotions of the moment. If a child is taught that God's word is absolute truth, he will look upon morals as subject to firm precepts.

If a child is allowed to read profane and foul literature, he will look upon life as permissive and perverted. If a child is taught that God hears and answers prayers, he will look upon prayer as a source of strength to help through life.

If a child is taught that reasonable parental discipline is an infringement upon his right, he will look upon his parents and teachers with contempt. If a child is taught that parents are responsible to God to discipline him for his highest eternal good, he will look upon his parents with love and respect.

"And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath; but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord (Ephesians 6:4).

OUR SICK

Please Remember in your prayers

Tony Minor has been ill with bronchitis this past week.

Tib Hoots underwent her first chemo treatment this past week and is tolerating it well at this point.

Eula Harper fell last Sunday and is at the Forsyth Hospital recovering. She is scheduled to be moved to the Regency in a few days.

Debbie Southern fell on a camping trip last week and sustained a broken leg in two places. She is currently at home following a two-day stay in the hospital.

Carolyn Plunk is waiting results of tests she underwent recently.

Ellen Wingo's father, Ernest Kirkland, has been released from the hospital. He is still having a very difficult time.

Andy Swaim, Tim Allen's sister Brenda's son, is in the Baptist Hospital. He had a procedure for a leaking aneurysm Wednesday and is in critical condition and not expected to live.

Please continue to remember Shannon Harper's stepmother, Evelene, in your prayers.

A family friend of the Byrd's, Mrs. Graves, is suffering from colon cancer.

Cally Workman (14 yrs old) was in an accident and is in ICU in a coma. She has had two surgeries to relieve pressure on her brain. She is the granddaughter of a member at the Madison church of Christ.

Baby Gifts

There is a basket located in the foyer for gifts for Brian and Anna Carothers Tomlinson. They are expecting a baby girl in June.
