RECALLED

Last week the United States government called for the return of their ambassador to Syria because there were threats against his life. There is a great possibility that he might not ever return. I guess that is understandable, given the circumstances. The source of the threats will probably always be there.

Contrasting this, there is the analogy that we are ambassadors for Christ while here on earth. “Now then, we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God were pleading through us: we implore you on Christ’s behalf, be reconciled to God.” (2 Corinthians 5:20) When we are going about representing God with our life-example and our speech, we are in fact speaking for Him. As Scripture says He is pleading through us. Since that is the case, we are asked to be reconciled to God, i.e., we should be living a Godly life, walking in the light (1 John 1:7). It is our choice to live as God would have us to live and we should gain satisfaction in this.

There will be one day when we are called to come home but it will not be because of threats here, but rather when our work is done. God will call us home for our reward. When that happens, what will you have to show for your efforts?

Paul

ELDERS CORNER:

THE PURPOSE OF A GOSPEL MEETING

- TO exhibit unto the changing world the unchanging Christ.
- TO give unto fainting hearts a firmer basis for their hope.
- TO remind those who are weary and are heavy laden of the rest which the Savior gives.
- TO inspire with courage those people who fear future days.
- TO present unto the broken-hearted the great Physician with His healing balm.
- TO warn all men - saint and sinner - of the danger of sin.
- TO point those who are burdened with the guilt of sin to the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world.
- TO present to those who are lost the Savior and the simple terms of salvation.
