“FROM VBS TO NCSBS VIA THE FOURTH OF JULY”

Believe it or not we actually had “bones” one night for “snacks” at VBS! One of the best things about VBS is cooperation and hard work that goes in to making it a success. From the emcee to the cleanup crew and all places in between, we had a really great VBS! I know the teachers went the extra mile this year because our classes were longer. The adult class teachers did their part and presented their lessons well. Your support of this VBS was very important and showed your commitment to the Lord’s work. If you didn’t see the class rooms and how they were decorated, you missed some real creativity. We may never know the extent of the good influence the teachers exerted on the kids but we can know they were taught the truth. It’s that truth that makes one free.

Speaking of “free,” tomorrow is the Fourth of July, the celebration of the forming of our nation. Although we may not always appreciate some of the aspects of that freedom, we can be grateful that we still have the freedom to conduct our VBS freely. Freedom always has a price and usually that includes the sacrifice of time and life. Men and women are engaged in foreign fields today protecting our freedom. Remember to pray for them when you thank God for the blessings we enjoy. One of those blessings is having a school of Biblical studies.

Our third graduation for the North Carolina School of Biblical Studies is this Saturday, July 9th at 4 o’clock p.m. Men and women have sacrificed their time and efforts to be students of God’s Word for the past two years. This congregation has supported this work so unselfishly that when our graduates go out a part of us goes with them. Although the students did the study and the work, you have provided them with a place and the means to do so. Please join us this Saturday for the graduation exercise and meal to follow in their honor. And while you’re here, please know that some of that honor is yours.

ELDERS CORNER:

BAPTISM IS FAITH REACHING FOR THE CROSS

Sin is man's worst enemy. It crouches at the door of the mind, eager to pollute the source of every human activity. It maintains constant surveillance over the mind, knowing that its capture means the ruin of a man. Sin enters the mind by invitation and supplants its light with darkness. An appalling enumeration of sins that characterized the Gentile world begins with the depiction, "their foolish heart was darkened" (Rom. 1:21). John asserts that a man who hates his brother "is in darkness, and walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes" (I John 2:11).

Only Christ and the gospel can replace darkness with light. Jesus is the "light of the world" (John 8:12). The light of Christ is manifested through the gospel and its appeal is to the mind, "for out of it are the issues of life" (Prov. 4:23).
