SHAME ON US

A labor leader said to us the other day: "Give us five per cent of the men in any shop and we'll unionize the entire shop." The words struck us with conviction. What about our Christian testimony? Can a five-per-cent minority of born-again Christians make an impact on a community? Shouldn't they? The idea suggests that these men of the five per cent (the union nucleus) go to work with enthusiasm, definiteness, and persistence. The trouble with most of us as Christian workers is plainly seen. If we have enthusiasm, it is only a temporary spurt, and we lack persistence. And most of us are indefinite in our aim and efforts. Our soul winning activities - if any - are sporadic and pointless. We take off our hats to the zeal and the determination of the five per cent who can swing the thing. Let's have at least five per cent really at work for Christ now in the midst of this needy world. --Moody Monthly.

OUR SUBSTITUTE

He who is the Bread of Life began His ministry hungering. He who is the Water of Life ended His ministry thirsting. Christ hungered as man, and fed the hungry as God. He was weary, and yet He is our Rest. He paid tribute, yet He is the King. He was called a devil, and cast out devils. He prayed, and yet He hears our prayers. He wept, and He dries our tears. He is sold for thirty pieces of silver, and redeems the world. He is led as a lamb to the slaughter, and is the Good Shepherd. He dies, and gives His life, and by dying destroys death.

----The Christian.

IF ALL THE SKIES

If all the skies were sunshine,
Our faces would be fain
To feel once more upon them,
The cooling splash of rain.

If all the world were music,
Our hearts would often long
For one sweet strain of silence
To break the endless song.

If life were always merry,
Our souls would seek relief
And rest from merry laughter
In the quiet arms of grief.

-----Van Dyke.

A LITTLE PARABLE

I made the cross myself, whose weight
Was later laid on me.
This thought is torture as I toil
Up life's steep Calvary.

To think mine own hands drove the nails!
I sang a merry song,
And chose the heaviest wood I had
To build it firm and strong.

If I had guessed - If I had dreamed
Its weight was meant for me,
I should have made a lighter cross
To bear up Calvary!

---Anne Reeves Aldrich.

TRY SMILING

When the weather suits you not, try smiling;
When your coffee isn't hot, try smiling.
When your neighbors don't do right,
Or your relatives all fight,
Sure 'tis hard, but then you might
Try smiling.

Doesn't change the things, of course, just smiling,
But it can not make them worse, just smiling;
And it seems to help your case,
Brightens up a gloomy place;
Then, it sort o' rests your face -
Just smiling.
