THE OCCULT

Many things may come to mind when the occult is mentioned. But properly defined the occult refers to that which is hidden or secret; things that go beyond our five senses.

Today, interest in it seems to be growing more and more (movies about witches, programs, books, etc.). The popular book series about "Harry Potter" have sparked a renewed interest in magic and witchery. The "Pirates of the Caribbean" trilogy has interested people in things magical and fanciful.

There are a number of reasons why people get involved in the occult, i.e. curiosity, looking for special powers, ignorance, gullibility, etc. Television programs like "Inked," focusing on tattoo parlors, inform us that many tattoos have occult themes.

With many practices of the occult becoming commonplace in our society today, we must become more aware of these things so as to refute them. Some of these you may not even recognize as occult practices because they have become commonplace.

As the occult encompasses a wide range of beliefs and practices, this series will only focus on the ones most common today. We will study: Superstition, Astrology, Fortune Telling, and Ghosts.

2008 Work Plan Presentation

This is a reminder to encourage everyone to be present tonight after the evening worship service for the elder's presentation of the 2008 work plan. In last week's bulletin we looked back at some accomplishments during 2007. Tonight we plan to look forward and talk about areas where we want to increase our involvement during 2008.

The purpose of our annual work plan is to set goals that will help us accomplish the greatest good for our Lord. Any goals we set can only be accomplished with your help. Each family will receive a copy of the 2008 edition to refer to at home. As we proceed through the year, it is important to review the work plan regularly in order to keep our goals foremost in our minds. You can find answers to questions about use of the annex, cemetery rules, or deacon's responsibilities. Also, you will have the dates for VBS, Ladies day, Friends and Family day and Gospel meetings that you need when planning vacations etc.

We encourage you to be present tonight so you can ask any questions you have or make comments concerning the 2008 work plan.
