A CORDIAL WELCOME AWAITS YOU

MARCH 8, 2009

“... and he died.”

There was a Christian lady who was married to a non-Christian man. He was good to her and didn't mistreat her. He just wasn't a Christian. One year, for her birthday, he asked her what she wanted for her birthday. She told him she wanted him to go to worship with her. He gave her that “You know how I feel about that,” look; but reluctantly agreed to go. She was so excited. She wanted that Sunday for everything to be perfect. But the preacher's sermon that morning was taken from the genealogy of Genesis, chapter five. You know; “So all the days of Enosh were nine hundred and five years and he died.” She thought to herself, “Oh no! That's not what he needs to hear!”

She was so disappointed and he husband said nothing about the service. But a couple of days later, her husband came home from work and told her he was ready to become a Christian. Overjoyed, she asked him what it was that brought him to that decision. He said, “I kept thinking about that sermon Sunday morning where all those people would live a certain number of years and then die. That phrase “and he died,” kept making me think, ‘One day I'll die and I need to be right with God.’”

At the Warner's Chapel church of Christ we strive to help people understand what they must do to do that very thing. What about you? Are you right with God?

ELDERS CORNER:

“RESERVED SPACES”

The Elders have determined that “RESERVED” spaces are needed for drivers who have difficulty walking, but do not have a handicap tag. The message “RESERVED” will be painted in three spaces in the center aisle directly across from the end of the handicap ramp.

If you do not have difficulty walking, but drive someone who does, please continue to let your passenger out at the end of the handicap ramp and move your vehicle to a space that is not marked “RESERVED” or with a handicap symbol.

Please continue to be courteous to those who have difficulty in walking by not parking in spaces that are “RESERVED” or with a handicap symbol. The elders thank you for your cooperation.
