COME TONIGHT

— WE REPEAT THIS ANNOUNCEMENT —

The present mailing list is being scrapped. If you have a friend or relative or know of a member who has moved away who should receive a bulletin, write the name and address on a piece of paper and give to either Dot Holder, Helen Warner or Eunice Reeves.

— THOUGHTS FOR MEDITATION —

Those who really want to worship God because of the deep sense of their dependence upon him will want to come into God's house...church...where that worship should be offered.

Only an unwavering faith that one has that he is right will protect him against the blighting influence of false doctrines. Weak faith opens the door for all kinds of errors. Endorsing false teaching is sin. II Jno. 9-11.

A careful consideration of God's love, Christ's sacrifice, and the promises of eternal life cannot fail to reach hearts that respond to justice and truth. To such hearts the worship of God is the source of the greatest gladness.

As tests show the strength that materials have, so trials demonstrate who will be able to stand against evils. Only those Christians that resist evil are dependable servants of God. The real defense of the church rests with them.

Spoken truth must be heard, and written truth must be read, to accomplish the desired results. In the early days of the church the people heard the apostles speak; now we read what they wrote. A blessing rests upon those who read and keep the truth. Rev. 1:3. Paul told Timothy to "give heed to reading." I Tim. 4:13.

A RECIPE FOR CHARM

A dear old Christian woman, distinguished for her youthful appearance, was asked what she used to preserve her charms. She replied sweetly: "I use for the lips, truth; for the voice, prayer; for the eyes, pity, for the hands, charity; for the figure, uprightness; and for the heart, love."

WANTED: GREAT HEARTS

The Word is solemn, therefore don't trifle;
The task is difficult, therefore don't relax;
The opportunity is brief, therefore don't delay;
The path is narrow, therefore don't wander;
The prize is glorious, therefore don't faint.
