A CORDIAL WELCOME AWAITS YOU

August 3, 2008

Year Two

Tomorrow starts our second year of curriculum at the North Carolina School of Biblical Studies. Our first year went very well. Nearly thirty (30) different people took advantage of classes in the first four quarters of the school's existence. This figure includes anyone who took at least one class and was considered as either a credit or audit student.

The Fall 2008 quarter will see some changes in status for some students. Dathan Bodie will be going from part-time status to full-time. A new student, Todd Hamm, will be starting as part-time but will become full-time in the Winter Quarter 2008 which begins in October. That means we will have a total of six (6) full-time students. The total student body is seventeen (17).

There are some who wanted to come but could not raise enough money in time or something else precluded them from becoming one of our students. I hope you will pray for these students that they might have the determination to come and become better prepared to serve the Lord in his kingdom.

The Fifth Sunday contribution in August has been set aside by the elders for the NCSBS student support fund. I pray that you will help us again with your generosity.

Paul

ELDERS CORNER:

WHY STRESS THE IMPORTANCE OF BAPTISM?

The jailor's question, "What must I do to be saved?" (Acts 16:30) is still on the minds of thinking individuals. According to the Bible, the answer is: Hear the Gospel of Christ (John 6:44) and believe in Jesus as God's Son (Acts 16:30-34; John 8:24; Hebrews 11:6). Next one must repent of sins (Acts 17:30-31; Luke 13:3; Acts 2:38) and confess faith that Jesus is the Christ (Romans 10:9-10; Matthew 10:32-33; Acts 8:37). Then the consummating act of one's obedience is to be baptized to be saved (Mark 16:16). When these matters are discussed sometimes a question arises: "Why stress the importance of baptism so much?" The answer to this question is well answered in the following list of Bible references:

- Water stands between sinner and cleansing (Ephesians 5:26)
- Water stands between sinner and sanctification (Ephesians 5:26)
- Water stands between sinner and putting away sins (Col. 2:11-13)
- Water stands between sinner and new life in Christ (Ephesians 2:6)
- Water stands between sinner and forgiveness (Col. 1:13-14)
- Water stands between sinner and the kingdom (John 3:5)
- Water stands between sinner and the blood of Christ (John 19:34)
- Water stands between sinner and a good conscience (I Peter 3:21)
- Water stands between sinner and the promise through Christ (Acts 2:39)
- Water stands between sinner and the body (I Cor. 12:12)
- Water stands between sinner and salvation (I Peter 3:21)
- Water stands between sinner and sonship (Galatians 3:26-27)
