A CORDIAL WELCOME AWAITS YOU

November 7, 2010

“For Good, or For Evil?”

A thief, who broke into a house, saw a “picture” of Christ hanging on the wall. Before stealing anything, he took the picture down and turned it around so that Christ wouldn’t seem to be watching him. Later, the thief’s fingerprints were found on the picture frame and he was caught.

So it will be for each of us. Some day each so will either be convicted or redeemed by Christ. The Bible says, “For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that everyone may receive the things done in his body according to that he hath done. Whether it be good, or whether it be bad.” @ Corinthians 5:10.

There is no way to escape the justice of God. The Bible also says, “For God shall bring every work into judgment with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.” Ecclesiastes 12:14.

So what kind of secret things will you want to answer for? Those that were for good; or those that were evil?

Frank

THE DAY AFTER...

The day after the election, regardless of who won, Jesus will still be King.

The day after the election, our responsibilities as Christians will not have changed.

The day after the election, the greatest agent for social change in America will still be winning the hearts and minds of men and women through the gospel, not legislation and lies.

The day after the election, regardless of who wins, my primary citizenship will still be in this order: (1) the Kingdom of God, (2) America, not vice-versa.

The day after the election, regardless of who won, the tomb will still be empty.

The day after the election, the cross, not government, will still be our salvation.

The day after the election, my neighbor will still be my neighbor, and loving him/her will still be the second greatest commandment (Do you know the first?)

The day after the election, our children will still be more concerned with whether or not we spend time with them than with who is President.

The day after the election, the only way to see abortion ultimately overturned will still be winning men and women to a high view of life through the truth in the gospel of Christ.

The day after the election, the only way to see marriage is through a Biblical view of marriage through a Biblical view of marriage through the gospel of Christ.

The day after the election, my future will still not match my treasure in Heaven.

The day after the election, “Jesus Is Lord” will still be the greatest truth in the Universe.

The day after the election, we will still know that God is in control.
