BACK HOME

Joy and I are very glad to be back. Tho our stay in Greensboro was delightful, we are glad to be "back home".

There are many things for which to thank you: the two gifts, the refinishing in the house and the warm reception given us.

We are now ready for work. Tonight was our first prayer-meeting this fall. There were 34 present. There is plenty of room for improvement here. Let every member of the church endeavor to come and bring someone with him. Let's have 50 next week.

The attendance at Bible Study Sunday was the lowest in months! We are guilty of something. What is it?

Some are staying away on Sunday Night.

We must not be just "Sunday morning Christians".

Our immediate goal is to increase our attendance. How is this to be done? Personal Work is the answer. Not just the preacher but every member of the church must respond. Invite your neighbor. Maybe an invitation is all the encouragement he needs to come. Try it!

Work for the night is coming,
Work through the morning hours;
Work, while the dew is sparkling,
Work 'mid springing flowers:

Work, when the day grows brighter,
Work in the glowing sun;
Work, for the night is coming,
When man's work is done.

Mal L. Johnson

We were glad to have Brother and Sister Cannon worship with us last Sunday. We always appreciate our visitors and want you to feel welcome to come and worship with the Warner's Chapel congregation whenever you can.

Miss Bertha Warner is improving. She left the hospital and is now at the home of her brother.

I count this thing to be grandly true:
That a noble deed is a step toward God,
Lifting the soul from the common sod
To a purer air and a broader view.

SING ON

At midnight's season chill
Lay Paul and Silas Bound;
Bound, and in prison, sang they still,
And, singing, freedom found.
