CHRIST AS HEAD

Christ is the Head of the Church. He came to earth, suffered, shed His blood, died, was buried, raised from the dead and ascended back to the Father. Therefore, he purchased the Church with His blood. He loved the Church and gave himself up for it. In Matt. 16:18 "And I say unto thee, Thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it." Christ is the chief corner stone of the church. I Cor. 3:11 "For no other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ." Since Christ is the head of the church, all of the worship of the church should be directed to him; it should not have any man made ideas. We should not add to or take away from the teachings and commandments of Christ. Rev. 22:18-19 "For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of prophecy of this book, If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book: And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the Holy City, and from the things which are written in this book." Christ is head of the church; therefore, let us honor Him as such.

GRADUATION

Tonight after services Brother Johnson and Brother Jim Harper are leaving for a trip to Jacksonville, Florida where Brother Johnson is to make last minute plans for his wedding. From there they will journey to Nashville, Tennessee where Brother Johnson will speak at the David Lipscomb College graduation exercises. He is class orator. The two are due home next Saturday.

CHRISTIANS

Christians have a friendship
 That no one else doth know;
 Christians go a highway
 That no one else doth go;
 Christians see the beauty
 That God himself put here;
 Christians have a duty
 That they themselves must clear.
 Christians, all, are needed
 To do their jobs in turn;
 Christians are the teachers
 For all the world to learn;
 Christians have a friendship
 That no one else doth know--
 And who has made us friends to all?
 Well, God has made us so.
