A CORDIAL WELCOME AWAITS YOU

August 16, 2009

Welcome Students From NCSBS

Jeff Cannon was born and raised in Kannapolis, North Carolina. He lives in Raleigh, North Carolina. He and his wife, Kelly, have been married almost nineteen years. They have a son, Tanner, who is ready to start at UNC-Charlotte. Jeff has served three years in the U.S. Army, with the Rangers. Before coming to NCSBS, Jeff owned and operated his own business. It was a loading dock equipment distributorship.

He and his family have lived in Raleigh and worshipped at the Raleigh church of Christ for the past ten years. He serves as a deacon in charge of benevolence there and has done so for the last four years. Jeff, having attended and become a member of the church in Kannapolis, has attended several Timothy classes and other classes and those helped to encourage him to become a gospel preacher. Jeff also serves as Director of Carolina Bible Camp during the seventh week. His hobbies include classic cars and sports memorabilia. Jeff is a first year student and will graduate in July of 2011.

Matthew Carter was born in Aurora, Colorado, and now lives in Wilson, North Carolina. He served in the U.S. Navy for ten years and is in the Navy Reserves. He served as a Gun Fire Control technician. He has a daughter named Kaitlyn who will be nine in September. Before coming to school he was a maintenance mechanic and computer trouble-shooter with Bridgestone / Firestone. His motivation to preach comes from having a grandfather and father who are both faithful gospel preachers. His grandfather passed away recently after preaching for fifty years. He feels it is a necessity for him to preach according to Mk.16:15,-16.. His hobby is golf and he has gotten down into the high seventies, low eighties.

—Frank

ELDERS CORNER:

NCSBS

Our work with NCSBS continues to grow. As we begin a new year, Dathan Bodie continues his studies with us. We also welcome four new full time students. Among these full time students is Alan Knight from here at Warners. Other new students coming in are Jeff Cannon from Raleigh, Matthew Carter from Wilson, and Eric Bouza from the Charlotte area.

There will be several involved in the ladies program and hopefully many of you will participate in either the day or evening classes. Also three students are enrolling in the distance learning program on-line with their computers. Additionally 19 students will participate in the satellite programs being offered in the Mountain Island, Spindale, and Goldsboro congregations. There are more than thirty students who will be participating this year.

Along with full time students come financial needs. The last Sunday in August will be a fifth Sunday and the contribution for that Sunday has been designated to be placed in the NCSBS scholarship fund. Please consider this need as you plan your giving.
