WHY NOT ADMIT IT?

While I was a student in High School, a discussion arose in class concerning excuse making. Our teacher reminded us that we could simply and truthfully give our reasons for failing some service entrusted to us or we could go "high hat" with our excuses.

Thereupon she gave us a lengthy sentence which said practically nothing, but was running over with big two dollar words. I think every member of the class copied "the excuse", memorized it, and thereafter used it as often as possible.

If we are absent from Sunday School, should we say, "due to a concatenation of fortuitous circumstances, superinduced by a series of unparalleled coincidences, I was unable to attend, "would it not be better to crawl out of the dictionary and simply say, "I didn't get there because I didn't try hard enough".

CLOTHING

Remember the clothing drive closes today!
Don't you want to have a part?

WHAT DO YOU MEAN TO THE CHURCH?

There are four kinds of people in every church.

The first, like a car off the rails, is of no use at all until it gets back on the line.

The second is like a car which stands still on the line, but will go if it is pushed.

The third is like a good engine, going full speed ahead, but alone.

The fourth is like an engine going at full speed but pulling cars along with it.

TO WHICH CLASS DO YOU BELONG?

A CHRISTIAN SHOULD BE LIKE A GOOD WATCH

Open Face;

Busy Hands;

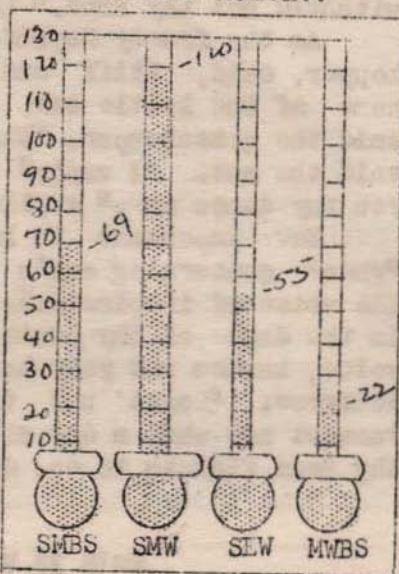

Pure Gold;

Well Regulated;

Full of Good Works.

BEING A GENTLEMAN

"My boy," said a father to his son, "treat everyone with politeness, even those who are rude to you; for remember, you show courtesy to others, not because they are gentlemen, but because YOU are one!"

WON'T YOU COME BACK TONIGHT?

THE ANT

"The ants are a people not strong, yet they prepare their meat in the summer." (Prov.30:25).

"Go to the ant, thou sluggard, consider her ways and be wise: which having no guide, overseer, or ruler provideth her meat in the summer, and gathereth her food in the harvest." (Prov.6:6-8).

The ant is busy during the summer preparing for the chilly days of winter. The important lesson of the time "when" to do things is impressed by the ant. Many human beings need this lesson.

"In the morning sow thy seed, and in the evening withhold not thy hand." (Ecc.11:6).

As the frosty days of winter were coming, a grasshopper, cold, stiff and hungry, made its way to the home of the little ant. "Give me something to eat," said the grasshopper. "What did you do in the summer?" said the ant. "I sang," said the grasshopper. "Well, you may dance now," replied the ant.

How important to learn this lesson of the time "when" concerning one's eternal interests. "Now" is the voice of inspiration. "Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth." "Today if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts." There is no invitation tomorrow. "Boast not thyself of tomorrow, for thou knowest not what a day shall bring forth." "Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might."

---A. G. Freed.

THIS IS WORTH READING

At the devil's booth are all things sold,
 Each ounce of dross costs its ounce of gold,
 For a cap and bells our lives we pay;
 Bubbles we buy with a whole soul's tasking:
 'Tis Heaven alone that is given away,
 'Tis only God may be had for the asking.
