"The churches of Christ salute you" Rom. 16:16

A CORDIAL WELCOME AWAITS YOU

October 2, 2016

"WHAT IS THE LAW AND THE PROPHETS?"

I don't know who wrote this, but they entitled it, "The Golden Rule: Matthew 7:12," "Be what you want others to be. Say what you want others to say to you. Love like you want to be loved. Live like you want others to live around you. Sing like you want our singing to be. Be faithful in worship as you want your children to be. Serve like you want to be served. Smile like you want others to smile at you. Care for others because you need others to forgive you. Be there for others because one day you will need others to be there for you. Strengthen others and those around you will be more Christ-like too. Rejoice in the Lord and those around you will rejoice." What is the "Golden Rule"?

"Therefore, whatever you want men to do to you, do also to them, for this is the Law and the Prophets." Matthew 7:12.

ELDERS CORNER

COMING TOGETHER

—Neal Pollard

After Jefferson Davis of the Confederacy and Ulysses Grant of the Union died, their widows, Varina Davis and Julia Grant, settled near each other and became the closest of friends (Atlas Obscura).

What a remarkable story of how two people from opposite sides came together. Their husbands were philosophically and militarily opposed to one another, but their spouses overcame those hindrances.

I never cease to be amazed at the differences that are overcome in Christ. On foreign mission trips, we may go to places where our governments are antagonistic to one another and yet we find a common bond in Christ.

Race, culture, education, and finance are all surmountable barriers in Christ. Ephesians 2:16 reveals how Jew and Gentile were reconciled by Christ's cross in the church.

God intended the church to be the place where people, despite their diversities, can all submit to Christ's authority and be one. Yes, even Yankees and Southerners. Even Easterners and Westerners. Even college grads and grade school dropouts.

Paul also write, "For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit. For the body is not one member, but many" (I Corinthians 12:13-14).

In a world that tries to divide us politically, ethnically, and regionally, Christ wants us coming together! Through the church, we can.

Sentence Sermons:

Worry is sand in the machinery of life.
We can make our lives a mess or a message.
Two marks of a Christian: giving and forgiving.
Easy street is hard to find.
Too many of us care too little for character and too much for reputation.
