DON'T STOP FIGHTING SATAN

The false system of doctrine known more commonly as "Calvinism" originates in the twisting and misunderstanding of the Scriptures taught by Augustine and John Calvin. One of the many facets of this unscriptural system tells us that one who has been saved by the grace of God, can never so sin as to fall from the grace of God. In the minds and teachings of Calvinists, those who have received salvation can never lose salvation. They are wrong.

Who would deny the salvation of the apostle Paul (Acts 9:10-22; 22:12-21)? Paul was saved. Paul had received salvation. Paul knew he could lose that salvation. Paul wrote, "But I discipline my body and bring it into subjection, lest, when I have preached to others, I myself should become disqualified" (1 Corinthians 9:27). In the same context, Paul warns all Christians, "Therefore let him who thinks he stands take heed lest he fall" (1 Corinthians 10:12).

Paul wrote an inspired letter "to the churches of Galatia" (Galatians 1:1-2). The churches of Galatia were made up of those who had become Christians. They were the saved. Yet, Paul told them they could fall from grace (Galatians 5:4).

The writer of Hebrews spoke of how Christians could "fall away" (Hebrews 6:1-9). Were these people saved? Of course. How can one fall away from salvation if he has not received salvation? Also, the text describes them as "those who were once enlightened, and have tasted the heavenly gift, and have become partakers of the Holy Spirit." Even the Calvinist must admit one cannot become a partaker of the Holy Spirit unless he is saved. Clearly, these individuals were saved. Most certainly they were being told they could fall away.

Peter wrote to Christians who had “escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ” (2 Peter 2:20). In that context, Paul spoke of how such Christians could become entangled with the world again, and be in a worse position than they were prior to becoming Christians (2 Peter 2:20-22).

Thankfully we can continue to walk in the light by confessing our sins to God and receive forgiveness for those sins (1 John 1:7-10). We are blessed to have God on our side so that we can “come boldly to the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need” (Hebrews 4:16). But, if we turn away from God and go back into the world we are lost (Hebrews 6:1-6; 10:23-27). Don’t make sin a regular habit, but every time you sin, get back up and fight again. Fight harder. Fight to the end. Push away from temptation.

Don’t give up on God. Don’t stop fighting Satan. Don’t give in to the world. As long as you continue fighting you can know that you have eternal life (1 John 5:13). May God bless you in your daily battles with the devil! May God bless you with continued growth, strength and maturity as you continue to live for Him. To God be the glory forever and ever!
