ANOTHER GOOD ONE

This year's Youth Rally marks the seventh one that I have attended. Each year we put another milestone behind us and begin to build on the next one. The choice to move to Carolina Bible Camp this year was one of careful planning and vision. Several comments of appreciation were made to me Saturday night and Sunday morning after services for hosting this Rally. Moms were especially grateful that there is a place where their children can come and enjoy the weekend that is full of fun, fellowship, food and faithfulness [alliteration, mine PEK]. Some of our participants come from churches that do not provide much activity at all for their young people.

Whenever I get compliments about the Rally each year I always defer the credit to John and Maryanne Allen. Grant it, they don't take enough credit for this event, but will usually defer the result as one that is a group effort. I do know it takes all of us working together to accomplish this feat, but if it were not for their leadership it would be very difficult for the Youth Rally to run as smoothly as it does. I know this from my own experience of conducting a Youth Rally in SC.

Thanks to all who participated to make this Rally a great success. Thanks especially for the Elders who allow us to host this great event for our young people. Thank these folks for their efforts.

—Paul

ELDERS CORNER:

KEPT AWAY BY HYPOCRITES

The man who says he is kept away from church by hypocrites is not influenced by them anywhere else.

Business is full of them; but if he sees a chance to make money, he doesn't stop for that.

Society is crowded with them, and yet he never thinks of becoming a hermit.

Married life is full of them; but that does not make him remain a bachelor.

Hell is full of them, and yet he isn't doing anything to keep from going there.

He makes you think that he is trying to avoid the society of hypocrites; and yet he takes not a single step towards the only place where no hypocrites can go—Heaven.

Honestly now, isn't that being a little hypocritical?
