A TRIP TO GOSSIP TOWN

Have you ever heard of Gossip Town on the shores of Falsehood Bay, where "Old Dame Rumor" with rustling gown is going the liveliàng day, It isn't far to Gossip Town to people who want to go,

The idlers train will take you down in just an hour or so.
The thoughtless road is the popular road, and most folks start that way.
It is deep down grade and if you don't watch out you will land in Falsehood Bay.
You will glide thru the valley of Vicious Town and into the tunnel of Hate,
Then crossing the "Add-to" bridge, you walk right thru
the city gate.
The principal street is called "They say," and I have heard it's a popular place,
The breezes that blow from Falsehood Bay are laden with "don't you tell."
In the midst of the town is "Tell-Tale Park", and you are never quite safe while there, It's honor is madam's suspicious remarks who lives on the street of "Don't Care".
Just back of the Park is Slander's Row, 'twas there that Good-Name died, It's pierced by a shaft from jealousy's bow in the hands of evil pride.
From Gossip Town people long have fled,
Trouble and grief, sorrow and woe, you will find them
there if you ever chance to go.

IF'S IN HUMAN RELATIONS.

- If you are hating, start loving folks.
- If you are cheating, start playing fair.
- If you are stealing (goods or time or a reputation),
quit,
- If you are forgiving but not forgetting, quit lying to yourself.
- If you are lying, start telling the truth.
- If you are being ugly and mean, start being nice.
- If you pity yourself, start pitying others.
- If you are greedy, start being generous.
- If you think the most important thing is feeling good, forget it. Be good!
- If you are boasting, quit it. "Let another praise thee and not thine own lips."
- If you think nobody cares for you, start caring a lot for someone.

If you are convinced that money is the highest goal of life, stop it. "He that loveth silver shall not be satisfied with silver."

If you are afraid of everybody, start saying, "When I am afraid I will put my trust in Thee."

If you are fudging on your vows to your wife, or your family, or business, or church, try keeping your vows.

If the walls of your imagination are full of lewd and lustful pictures, fill your mind with wholesome thoughts and the others will disappear.

If you are discouraged about the power of the sword, remember the power of the spirit.

Knowing God.

We cannot see God face to face, but there are a number of ways by which we can learn of Him. 1. By nature. "The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handywork!" 2. By man. Of all creatures, man alone was created in the image of God. (Gen. 1:26, 27.) Man is the offspring of God, and is wholly dependent on Him, for being and sustenance. (Luke 3:38.) And, "For in him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also his offspring." (Acts 17:28.) 3. By direct statements from the Bible. We can see God's love, patience, mercy, vengeance, and providence by observing his former dealings with man in the Old and New Testaments.

"God is faithful." (1 Cor. 1:9.)

"God is no respecter of persons." (Acts 10:34.)

"The Lord is not slack concerning his promise."
(2 Pet. 3:9.)

"God is love." (1 Jhn. 4: 8.)

"God is a Spirit." (Jhn. 4:24.)

God is one in purpose and yet three in person.

(Deut. 6:4; Matt. 28:19.)

God is omniscient. (Rom. 16:27.) God is omnipotent. (Ps. 8.) God is omnipresent. (Ps. 139.) God is infinitely just. (Ps. 89:14.) God is infinitely holy. (Isa. 6:1-3.) God is infinite in goodness. (Matt. 19:17.) God is eternal. (1 Tim. 1:17.) God is unchanging. (James 1:17.) God is the Creator of all things. (Ps. 89:11.) God is a jealous God. (Ex. 20:5.) and (Deut. 5; 9.)
