"Doing For Others"

There are some people who usually look out for their own interests and if someone else happens to benefit from those actions the self-concerned person basks in the light of thankfulness from the beneficiary as if they intended it to work out that way. There are those few self-absorbed people who will say, "I didn't plan it that way but if it worked out good for you that's good. There are also those who don't look out for anyone but themselves.

"Do unto others as you would have them do unto you," is called "the Golden Rule." The apostle Paul wrote that we should consider others before ourselves, Philippians 2:3. Jesus said, "...whoever desires to become great among you, let him be your servant." Matthew 20:26.

We can serve our fellow man by sharing the gospel with him. We can serve our God by sharing the gospel with our fellow man.

In other words, when we share the gospel, we are doing for others.

Elders Corner:

Go Back, Stand Still, Go Forward

The process of relinquishment and preparation in life can get confusing at times.

Moses tried to lead the children of Israel out of Egypt, but things suddenly took a turn toward disaster. He and the Israelites ended up at the shore of the Red Sea with Pharaoh's army hot on their heels. Pharaoh had just come from the deathbed of his firstborn and there was vengeance in his eyes and violence in his heart.

His pursuit of the Jewish people was relentless, and Moses knew he was coming.

The people said, "We ought to go back to Egypt." Moses said, "Stand still." God said, "Go forward."

Sometimes we find ourselves in a similar place. People around us ask, "What are you doing moving in that direction? Go back to where you were comfortable." Meanwhile, a leader you may respect may say, "Maybe you ought to just stay put for a while. Maybe the timing is just not right." The only way to find your way among conflicting opinions is to ask this question: What does God say (in His Word)? "Go forward."

"For it had been better for us to serve the Egyptians, than that we should die in the wilderness. And Moses said unto the people, Fear ye not, stand still, and see the salvation of the Lord." — Exodus 14:12-14
