A CORDIAL WELCOME AWAITS YOU

“Is Youth Wasted on the Wrong People?”

“Youth is wasted on the wrong people!” is one of the lines in the movie, “It’s A Wonderful Life”. The line was meant to be humorous and I suppose to many an adult it contains a great deal of truth. While a person may “waste” his youth on a lot of things, there are many things that young people do that are very productive and beneficial to others and beneficial to themselves.

For example, a young person who takes Ecclesiastes 12:1-4 to heart will have prepared himself not only for eternal life but also for the later years of this earthly life. Isn’t that what parents would like for all their children to do? While the answer to that question is simple and emphatic, the harder question to answer is: “How do we get our young people to do that?”

One part of the answer is for parents to not only “preach,” but to practice what they preach. Most young people are able to discern the difference between those who “say” and those who “say and do.” Another part of the answer is for parents to actually take the time to “teach” their children. It’s one of the main themes of the book of Proverbs. Another part of the answer is to encourage our young people to become Christians.

While this is by no means the “complete answer,” it is a beginning point for making sure that youth is not wasted on the wrong people.

ELDERS CORNER:

THEY WERE ALL WRONG

A good many years ago, a preacher went into a town where there was no New Testament church. He preached in a house of worship and then in the main street of the city. Soon all of the religious leaders of the city heard of him and invited him to address them. They thought if his religious claims seemed meritorious to them, they would fellowship him. But to their dismay and confusion, he preached that they were all wrong and he was right; and their worship was not acceptable to the God of heaven!

He preached that the church to which he belonged was the only true church of the living God. Such a preacher! Don't you know he hurt their feelings? Evidently they were sincere. Surely he could have made them a nice talk and got away without causing discord! Who was this preacher? His name was Paul and he preached this sermon in Athens. It did cause some stir. It did not please those religious leaders at all. They got up and left him before he was through with the sermon. But this sermon did please God.

Would you care to read this sermon? If so, open your Bible to the seventeenth chapter of Acts.
