A CORDIAL WELCOME AWAITS YOU

JULY 18, 2010

“At Day’s End”

Is anybody happier because you passed his way? Does anyone remember that you spoke to him today? The day is almost over, and its toiling time is through; is there anyone to utter now, a kindly word to you? Can you say tonight, in parting with the day that’s slipping fast, that you helped a single brother of the many that you passed?

Is a single heart rejoicing over what you did or said; does the man whose hopes were fading, now with courage look ahead? Did you waste the day or lose it? Was it well or sorely spent? Did you leave a trail of kindness, or a scar of discontent? As you close your eyes in slumber, do you think that God will say, “You have earned one more tomorrow by what you did today”?

You and I know that a man can’t “earn” another day, but when you think about the choices we make in encouraging others, we can certainly understand how our next day will be worthwhile.

The Bible says “he who would love life and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil and his lips from speaking guile. Let him turn away from evil and do good. Let him seek peace and find it. 1 Peter 3:10-11
