“FIVE SHOPPING DAYS LEFT ...”

Five shopping days left; time is running out. Some shoppers have already gotten their shopping done. Their gifts are all wrapped up, tagged, have a bow on them and are ready to give. Some folks have most of their shopping done. And some; ... well, they like to see how close they can cut it. There are still others who just don't seem to care one way or another.

But as the deadline draws near, it seems that almost everybody senses the need to prepare; to be ready for the “big day.” Because we all know when that day is coming most of us try to be ready when it gets here.

Well, there's another day coming, but the difficulty is that we don't know when that day is coming. It's a harder day to prepare for because in order to be ready for that day we have to be spiritually prepared. Do you have what you need to be ready for that day? Do you have most of it done? Do you have most of it left to do? Are you trying to cut it as close as you can? Do you really just not care? Well, whichever category you might put yourself in; it is a day that will come. Are you ready for that day to come?

If you want to be ready, but don't know what you need to be ready, we can help you get ready at Warner's Chapel church of Christ.

— Frank

ELDERS CORNER:

2010 Nicaragua Campaign

The elders are already in the process of planning for the next Medical/Evangelism Campaign that will take place June 11-19, 2010, in Niquinohomo, Nicaragua. During the December 6, 2009, update meeting after the evening worship service, sixteen Warners Chapel members indicated an interest in participating in the 2010 campaign.

One-half of the total participant expenses up to a maximum of $7500 will come from the church treasury. If any members wish to help with funding the balance of the participant expenses, the elders recommend that you make your check out to Warners Chapel for the Nicaragua work without designating it for an individual or individual family. This way your contribution will be tax deductible, and the elders will divide the contributions among all the participants on an as needed basis. Envelopes will be available on the table in the foyer for contributing to the Nicaragua work.

The elders appreciate the interest of those who participate in the campaigns and the generosity of those who can't go but are willing to help with the finances. The campaigns provide us with the opportunity to fulfill our obligations in the realm of benevolence and evangelism. Both those who go and those who help with the finances play an important role. Thanks for all you do to make this work a success. Please contact David Moore if any questions about the Nicaragua work.
