“MONDAY MORNING MOTIVATION”

People go to college for a variety of reasons, but Bob Kuetchenberg, formerly a football player with the Miami Dolphins, may have given the best reason yet, in an interview with Newsweek Magazine some years ago. He said, “My father and my uncle were human cannonballs in carnivals. My father told me, ‘Go to college or be a cannonball.’ Then, one day my uncle came out of a cannon, missed the net, and hit the Ferris wheel. I decided to go to college.”

That’s pretty strong motivation. When we think about the trials and troubles we’ll face this week, we don’t want to end up missing the net and hitting the Ferris wheel.

So where do we need to go? Christians go to God’s Word because it tells them how to get through this life. It also tells them how to land in a specific safety net and miss the eternal fires of hell. You need to obey the Gospel because all your opportunities will one day run out. On the Day of Judgment, will you have gone to Christ, or will you be a human cannonball – I mean, an eternal fireball? It should be pretty strong motivation.

ELDERS CORNER:

FREEDOM IN CHRIST

As this article is written, there are men and women around the world that are fighting to maintain the freedoms that this country enjoys and many times abuses or takes for granted.

This country was founded on religious freedom. Those initial settlers came her to escape the tyranny and oppression of state-directed religion. It was in the minds of the framers of the Constitution that this nation would formulate laws to maintain this separation and that would promote freedom of religion, not freedom from religion. Those in the ACLU seem to have an agenda to manipulate the laws to eradicate our participation, in any form, that involves religious acts or holding and sharing views of religion.

Jesus guaranteed freedom from the bondage of sin. “Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed; and ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free” (John 8:31-32). Paul said that we should “stand fast, therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free” (Galatians 5:1).

Though we know that we have liberty in Christ, that does not give us license to do whatever we want to do. The epistles of the New Testament are not a collection of “love letters, “ they are a collection of letters that instructed the early church and provided correction for existing problems. As such, they still remain just as authoritative and binding the the twenty-first Century. These spiritual freedoms are still worth fighting for.
