STUDY

Professionalists study. The doctor is one who has chosen medicine as his profession; he studies. The lawyer has chosen law as his profession; he studies. The educator has chosen teaching as his profession; he studies. Yes, professionalists study; they have too, or they fail.

Is Christainity a profession? Let's define a profession and see. First, a profession involves the intellect. Second, a profession is followed because of its benefits to others. Third, the amount of financial return is not the measure of success. We may safely answer that Christianity IS a profession. As in the case of the doctor, lawyer and educator, we too, as Christians must study or we fail. "Study to show thyself approved unto God; a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the work of truth". II Tim. 2:15.

THANK YOU
-----------

Last Sunday March 31st was my last preaching appointment with Warner's Chapel as their Minister. This brought to a close four years of very pleasant and profitable work. I have enjoyed every day of my work with the church here. I wish to express to you at Warner's Chapel my sincere thanks for the many acts of kindness and thoughtfulness to me and my family that has made our stay with you so pleasant.

For more than fifteen months I have assisted in the preparation and printing of the weekly bulletin. I trust this bulletin has been not only a help to the church here but also to every person who has received a copy of this bulletin.

On April 1st, Max L. Johnson of Nashville, Tennessee began working full time with Warner's Chapel. It is my sincere opinion that you could not have found a young preacher better suited for the work here. By your cooperation together I am sure the Lord will abundantly bless your every effort. It is my conviction that the years ahead will be the most fruitful years in the history of Warner's Chapel.

Again thanking you and may the Lord continue to bless your efforts for Him.

Sun of my soul, my Savior dear,
It is not night if Thou art near.

It is only by work that thought
can be made healthy. KINGSLEY.

LIFE

Life is not living
Just for to-day;
Life is not dreaming
All the short way.

To live is to do
What must be done;
To work and be true
For work is soon done.

'Tis living for others,
To lighten their load;
'Tis helping our brothers
And trusting in God.

JAMES H. HOADLEY
