THE NEWSFINDER

Recently BRO. JOHNSON began the practice of letting young men read the lesson text for him preceding the sermon in the worship service. Those young men who have done this are HERBERT HARPER, BOBBY WARNER, J I M HARPER, RAY MOSER and MAHLON MOSER.

BRO. and SISTER JOHNSON returned Friday noon from the meeting in Martinsville, Va. He reports that there was one baptism and one restoration. Warners Chapel members that attended the meeting were Bro. and Sister A.P. WARNER, JIM HARPER, GLADYS HARPER, HERMAN LANDRETH and RUBY LANDRETH.

Last Sunday we were glad to have Bro. JOHN ROBERTSON from Texas with us.

Saturday evening BLANCHE GRIFFITH was the guest of honor at a shower given by her sister EVOLA and sister in law IRENE HARPER.

Beginning today a news item will appear in the paper each week. If you have news of interest to the congregation, relay it to BRO. JOHNSON by 8:30 Friday evening.

DON'T STOP

"Go break to the needy sweet charity's bread,
For giving is living," the angel said.

"And must I be giving again and again?"

"O, no," said the angel, piercing me through;

"Just give till the Master stops giving to you."

CONSEQUENCES OF SIN

A Wisconsin jury had a knotty case to decide not long ago. A certain man's automobile had been in a bad accident, another car having crashed into it. That night the victim of the accident had a nightmare, dreaming the event over again, and in his fright he leaped out of bed and dove through a window, cutting himself badly and injuring his hand permanently. He claimed that the man who ran into his car was responsible for his nightmare, and the jury agreed with him, awarding him a thousand dollars damages.

The Infinite Judge holds us guilty of all our evil acts; and not only of the acts themselves, but the far reaching and long continued results of those acts. No jury can trace the festering trail of a piece of slander, but God can, and God will assess the final damages. God alone can follow up a foul thought and see the harm it works. God alone can pursue the windings of a mean suspicion, can see it poisoning one life after another, and learn the aggregate of injury.

Ah! there is much evil, infinitely much, of which no human court can take cognizance.

DESTROYING RESULTS OF SENSUALITY

Plutarch in his Life of Alexander the Great describes how he and his Macedonian troops became corrupted by the wealth and opportunities for debauch made possible by their victories. Alexander himself, controlled in youth, succumbed to temptation, was sometimes almost mad with wine and indulgence, and died in the midst of a carousal. His hardy soldiers became weak and effeminate, and soon the huge fabric of his empire crumbled into dust.

Lowliness is the base of every virtue,
And he who goes the lowest builds the safest.
