“Commitment or Just Carried Away?”

There is a difference between commitment and just getting “carried away.” People often get carried away and it is exciting; it can lift us up to great heights of accomplishment. But it can also let us down as rapidly as it will pick us up. Getting all carried away can be spasmodic and temporary. It seems that one cannot be carried away all the time.

On the other hand, commitment has a more permanent sound. It isn’t a height to be reached; it’s a foundation on which to build. Commitment suggests stability. Yes, some things are accomplished by getting carried away. But real strength lies in those who are constant in work, constant in giving, constant in living a life that benefits others.

For the Christian, commitment involves steadfastness. They strive not to be up one minute and down the next; hot one day and cold the next. Commitment involves trust. The Christian trusts God’s promises of eternal life and consequently, commits his or her life as opposed to just getting carried away.

ELDERS CORNER:

How Do I Know the Bible Is the WORD OF GOD?

Its wonderful unity convinced me. The Bible is not really one book; it is 66 books. There are 39 books in the Old Testament and 27 books in the New Testament.

If you were to print them on average 20 pound paper, with average margins, use an average size font, put them in an average binding, they would fill an average shelf.

They were written over a period of about 1500 years by at least 40 different authors, and in at least three different languages. They were written by people of all walks of life. Some were poets. Some were shepherds. Some were kings. Some were herdsmen. Some were farmers. Some were prophets. Some were preachers. And some were priests. In many instances the one had not read what the other had written. Yet when you gather these materials together, they don't read like 66 books. They read like one book.

How is that possible? God planned His Book from the beginning. "Holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost" (2 Peter 1:21)

OUR SICK: Please remember in your Prayers

It was reported Wednesday evening that Madeline Holbrook was ill with a virus this past week.

Lorie Rose has requested prayers in behalf of Shannon Wagner and family in the loss of her brother who passed away suddenly at the age of 32.

Update for prayer requests by Emily Workman for Ben Edwards — Ben has steadily improved and is off the ventilator and is expected to recover fully. He has also been restored with renewed zeal to serve God. Mrs. Cathey was released and will undergo outpatient therapy. She is doing much better.

PRAYER LIST

An up-dated copy (blue sheet) of the prayer list may be picked up on the credenza in the foyer.

Make Every Day of Your Life Happier

Every Day:

Share a kind word with a friend, - Give away a smile,
Tell one secret, - Listen to what someone has to say,
Try one new thing, - Forgive yourself for past mistakes,
Forgive one person who has hurt you,
Discover your possibilities, - Make a New friend,
Accept responsibility for everything you do,
Refuse responsibility for anyone else's actions,
Dream one dream, - Watch the sunset
Cherish who you are, - Love your life.
