A CORDIAL WELCOME AWAITS YOU

“THE HOT SEAT”

George Heflin believed in first things first and with him, work came first. His sons, Frank and Roy, were always working on Saturday afternoon while other boys got to go fishing and swimming, or in to town. One Friday night, after a really long hard day of working, George told his boys if their chores were done and they plowed a certain field of corn that Saturday; they could have the rest of the day off.

Frank and Roy were up a little before daybreak. They didn't stop for water and they didn't take a break. They had done their chores and were plowing the field by ten-thirty. With about three-fourths of the field plowed, around twelve-thirty, one of the mules they were plowing with got tired and sat down on his hind legs. He refused to budge. Frank and Roy used up a bunch of switches but Windy wouldn't move.

Desperate, the boys built a fire under Windy and he got up in a hurry. But he walked about ten feet and sat down again. They built another fire and Windy moved again – and sat down again. Needless to say, the boys finished their plowing without Windy. Some folks are like that old mule; they need a fire built under them to get them going. Don't be like Windy, or you'll always be on the hot seat.

— Frank

IS IT TIME TO UPDATE?

Times change. The new quickly becomes old, the modern is ancient, today's technological breakthrough quickly becomes yesterday's news, the popular is lost in "the latest," and the up-to-date is soon out of date.

Truth never changes. It reads the same today as it did yesterday and as it will tomorrow. It is "once for all delivered to the saints" (Jude 3). Those who would change it are "accursed" (Galatians 1:6-9) and find that it will meet them in judgment unchanged (Revelations 20:12).

Secular man thinks he has outgrown the ancient Gospel. The idea that there is an absolute standard is to him obsolete. The concepts of sin and spiritual death are replaced by "if it feels good, do it" and "live for today." He doubts that blood is needed for forgiveness and scoffs at the virgin birth, sinless life, sacrificial death, and miraculous resurrection of Christ. He thinks these are but myths of a bygone era.

WHEN WILL MAN OUTGROW THE GOSPEL?

When He Overcomes Sin.

When Man Conquers Temptation.

When Man's Soul No Longer Needs Food.

When Man No Longer Needs a Map To Heaven.

When Satan Is Defeated.

"The word of the Lord endureth forever:" (I Peter 1:25). Only the true Gospel of Christ leads to heaven (John 14:6). We can choose to heed it or harass it, to read it or reject it, respect it or ridicule it. But the same ancient Gospel is our only hope of a ticket through the pearly gates.
