ISAACS LEAVING:

June 30, 1957 will be the last Sunday for the Isaacs here at Warners Chapel. Beginning the first Sunday in July Bro. Isaacs will be working with the Shandon Church of Christ in Columbia, South Carolina. We have given much thought and prayer to this decision and we hope that we are making the right one. Let me urge each of you not to let down in the work, but strive diligently to do more in the few remaining days of our labor together. As other men come here to investigate the work, be sure and express your opinions to the Elders. I am sure they will appreciate this. Our new address after June 30th will be: 513 Dogwood Street, Columbia, South Carolina. We will be expecting to hear from all of you.

THANKS:

Bro. Isaacs wishes to thank everyone for the visits and cards during his attack of the flu.

THANKS:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the men who so ably substituted for me while I was sick. To Bro. Lonnie Moser and Bro. Aubrey Warner who taught the classes and to Bro. Jim Harper and Bro. Harold Doub who did the preaching, I express my deep appreciation for a job well done!

APPOINTMENTS FOR MARCH 24:

Wait on Lord's Table: Paul Moser

Serve congregation: George Ridings, Leroy Dull, Clarence Sheets, Tom Binkley

SICK:

Aunt Cooch Warner has been confined to her bed and unable to be out.

Sister Carrie Barkley had another stroke a little over a week ago. Sorry to hear this.

Sister Ida Pegram remains in critical condition in Baptist Hospital.

Aunt Lizzie Warner is still in City Hospital, but seems to be doing better.

There may be others that were sick Sunday, but not being there myself I failed to hear about them. Remember all the sick in our prayers, and with visits and cards.

MEETING:

Remember the meeting that starts today in Winston-Salem. The meeting will continue each evening at 7:45 through March 31st. Bro. Bryan Vinson will be the speaker.

CAROLINA BIBLE CAMP:

Young people, start making your plans right now to attend the Carolina Bible Camp this year. The dates for the camp are Aug. 4th thru Aug. 10th. Even though I will not be here at that time I am expecting to see many of your faces at camp this year. I sincerely believe we will have even a better camp this year than we did last year.
