“DO YOU HAVE ANY OLD VINEGAR BOTTLES?”

An older gentleman I knew about would tell the story of a little boy who was trying to raise some money by collecting old bottles, going door to door in his neighborhood. When he came to the home of a woman who was known in town as “the old grouch,” the little boy asked, “Do you have any “coke” bottles?” “No!” she said, with a scowl on her face. Then he asked, “Do you have any old whiskey bottles?” “Young man,” the woman said haughtily, “Do I look like the type of person that would have any old whiskey bottles?”

The little boy looked her up and down for a minute and said, “Well, do you have any old vinegar bottles?”

*Isn’t true that some people seem to go through life so negatively, sourly and bitterly? Life is just too short to through it living like an old grouch. Don’t become the old grouch in your family or neighborhood. Smile, love, and laugh a little. With the hope of the Gospel of Christ we are exhorted to “Rejoice always.” 1 Thessalonians 5:14.

Do you have any old vinegar bottles, or do you just look like you do?

—Frank

Why Did Jesus Have To Die?

Answered By: Shane Robinson

The short answer to our question is Jesus had to die because God promised death would occur when sin took place in the garden (Genesis 2:15-17).

When Adam ate from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil he was under the sentence of death. Instead of putting Adam to death and exterminating the human race, God accepted the death of someone or something else in his place.

Before punishing Adam and Eve, God cursed the serpent. God promised a male child would come from woman and eventually crush the serpent (3:14-15).

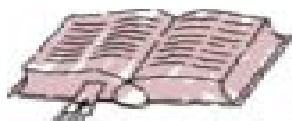

Jesus was the only person who could meet the qualifications of a valid substitutionary sacrifice. He was of the same human nature as sinners (Philippians 2:5-8), yet He was without sin (I Peter 1:18-19; 2:21-24). Jesus was not forced to die in the place of sinners; rather He chose to die on His own accord (John 10:11-18; 19:30-36). Through His death, the Lord laid on Him the iniquity of us all (Isaiah 53).

Jesus was the only way God could save man (see Hebrews 2:14-18). To suggest God could have saved man in any other way would suggest imperfection. God's plan was and is perfect; it could have been implemented no other way (Revelation 13:8; I Peter 1:20; Titus 1:2; Acts 4:28).

As we contemplate our question one more time, we must understand the reality that Jesus did not have to die. A careful study of the Scriptures makes one thing absolutely clear—God's effort on behalf of sinners was and is the result of pure love (John 3:15-17; Romans 5:6-10;). Thanks be unto God, for His unspeakable gift!
