A CORDIAL WELCOME AWAITS YOU

OUR GOSPEL MEETING NOVEMBER 8-12, 2009

We are about to host our annual Gospel Meeting with area speakers. We trust that you have planned to attend every night. The speakers selected will all bring a different perspective with their lessons.

Sometimes brethren ask, "What can I do?" The following is a sample of things we all can do to insure that our Meeting is successful.

PARTICIPATE BEFORE AND AFTER THE SERVICE...

1. Arrive early to greet and welcome visitors
2. Sit up front, leaving the back for visitors who come late
3. Stick around afterward, greet the visitors, invite them back
4. Extend hospitality by inviting them home or to a restaurant for a snack - cf. 1 Pt. 4:9

PARTICIPATE DURING THE SERVICE...

1. Sing in a spirited manner, with grace in your hearts
2. Give a hearty amen to the prayers offered
3. Those who lead in prayer and song, do so audibly and with enthusiasm!
4. Give close attention to the sermon - cf. Acts 17:11

Paul

ELDERS CORNER:

The elders at Warners Chapel believe it is important to periodically visit and encourage the works we support with your contributions. On November 4th Steve Martin will leave for Zambia to visit the work of the "Zambia School of Biblical Studies".

While there for 16 days he plans to: (1) Speak to the school students about the need to develop leadership in each congregation of the Lord's church. (2) Attend the graduation ceremony of the present class of 20 students on November 15th. (3) Visit some of the areas in the bush where irrigation drip kits are being used. Warners sent 200 drip kits to Zambia in June of this year to be used by preachers to raise food for their families during the dry season. (4) To visit some of the congregations within traveling distance of the school to encourage them.

While there we will have many benevolence and evangelism opportunities. There is a need to reproduce some good teaching material for use by the brethren there. The students and instructors do evangelism campaigns on the weekend when money is available for gasoline ($6.00 per gallon). There is no money in the school operating budget for this. Several congregations have been started from these continuing efforts. If you would like to give money to help with benevolence and evangelism in this area of Zambia, please make your check to Warners Chapel and put it an envelope and write Zambia on the envelope.
