WORRYING ABOUT WHAT'S NEXT

I have a good friend who lives in Kentucky and he's a huge fan of UK basketball. He's such a fan that he gets a bit too worked up while watching their games. Therefore, instead of watching their games live, he records their games and busies himself with other things. Then when the game is over, he checks the final score. If UK won, he can then sit down and watch that game without any worry or stress. No matter how "nip and tuck" the game may be, he doesn't worry because he knows how the game ends.

I believe there's a lesson here for all Christians. Too many of us worry about what tomorrow holds. We fret about what will happen next. However, here's my question: "Why should we worry about what happens next when we know what happens last?"

Life holds a lot of ups and downs, even for the Christian. But that is no reason to unduly worry and fret about tomorrow, for we know what happens in the end! We've read the end of the book, haven't we? And the book records that in the end, we're victorious (Revelation 2:10)!

So, the next time you're tempted to overly concern yourself with what will happen next, just remember that you know what will happen last!

ELDERS CORNER:

Dear Warner's Chapel brothers and sisters,

My family and I are excited about the opportunity to get to know you all and to work with you. We love the Lord's church dearly. We love His beautiful and powerful Word. We are confident we will be able to enjoy working side by side as God's fellow servants, and look forward to bringing you all into our lives.

We continue to hear great things about the Warner's Chapel church of Christ and want you to know that you have a wonderful reputation. Thank you so much for the tremendous welcome you gave us when we visited with you. We thoroughly enjoyed the hours of visiting we had with the elders there and are encouraged by the opportunity to be a part of the team.

Let us serve God together with love and devotion. Let us serve one another with kindness and brotherly love. Let us join together in appreciation for the power and authority of God's Word. Let us seek the lost, even as we edify one another.

Together we are heaven bound. To God be the glory!

Your fellow servant in Christ,

Kevin Rutherford

Please pray for Bob and Carolyn for the emotional, physical and spiritual strength they need.

Gina Harper was out sick with bronchitis last Lord's Day. Please pray for her.

Shannon Harper's Aunt Carol Johnson has been released from the hospital and is staying with her daughter. She appreciates all the prayers and would like us to continue to keep her in our prayers. Many thanks.

Emily Workman's grandmother, Virginia Kee, received good news from her MRI on Monday. Her brain tumor has shrunk as has the cyst surrounding it. She'll resume physical therapy and hopes to begin seeing benefits from it very soon. Thank you so much for all your prayers on her behalf.
