A CORDIAL WELCOME AWAITS YOU

MARCH 6, 2011

“WHAT’S THE RISK?”

To laugh is to risk appearing the fool. To weep is to risk appearing to be sentimental. To reach out to another is to risk involvement. To expose feelings is to risk exposing our true selves. To place your ideas, your dreams before the crowd, is to risk loss. To love is to risk not being loved in return. To live is to risk dying. To hope is to risk despair. To try at all is to risk failure. But, risk we must, because the greatest hazard in life is to risk nothing.

This Sunday morning, like every Sunday morning, our Sunday Bible study starts at ten. Our Sunday morning worship starts at ten fifty. Evening worship starts at six. Whether you are “churched” or “un-churched” we invite you to come and worship with us. Yes, our service may be different from your service, or you may not be used to any kind of service at all. But either way, we’d like you to come; be our guest next Sunday. What’s the risk? We believe you’ll find that it is well worth the risk.

—Frank

“Why Some Fail”

A noted psychologist was asked to give the reason why so many people failed in their efforts to make life successful. These frank and valid reasons were penned. Try them and see if they fit your life.

1. Finding fault with the other fellow but never seeing your own.
2. Doing as little as possible and trying to get as much as possible for it.
3. Spending much time showing up the other fellow's weak points, and too little correcting your own.
4. Slandering those we do not like.
5. Procrastination - putting off until tomorrow what we should have done day before yesterday.
6. Deceit - talking friendly to the other fellow's face and stabbing him in the back as he turns.
7. False belief that we are smart enough to reap a harvest of pay before sowing a crop of service.
8. Disloyalty to those who have trusted us.
9. Egotism - the belief that we know it all, and no man can tell us anything.
