SICK:

We are very happy to hear that "Aunt Cooch"
 Warner is home after six long weeks in the City Hospital.

🔔 Wedding Bells 🔔

On July 14, Gale Moser and David Queen were united in marriage in the Warner's Chapel building. The couple is now living in Winston Salem. Congratulations to both of you, and may the future years bring only the best.

OUR MEETING closed last Sunday evening with good interest and attendance throughout. Brother Johnson brought us many things we all ought to think about. Although there were no baptisms, we feel that much good was done.

ALMOST RIGHT But Not Quite!

The point we're trying to impress, is pretty well illustrated by our friends in this picture.

The workman attempting to drive the nail can be complimented for his honest and zealous efforts, but his being almost right has brought about serious consequences.

Being almost right in religion is not good enough. Ignorance of the truths of God, and a failure to do them is no excuse. Matt. 17:30

Who can say, "Just so you work hard at driving the nails, it doesn't really matter whether you hit the nail or the workman, you will be well paid anyway."?

Were the people who almost got into Noah's ark saved? Were the people spared who lived next door to Rahab in Jericho? Was Agrippa saved because he was almost persuaded?

The person who believes in Christ, repents of his sins and confesses his belief in Christ is almost in Christ. But this is not enough. He must obey Jesus' command and be baptized (Matt. 16:13), and continue to live a faithful Christian life to the end. (Rev. 2:10)

The smallest package known is a person all wrapped up in himself.

We can't kill time without injuring eternity.
