“A MOVING EXPERIENCE”

There's a new family that has moved in at the house across the street from the church building. Their names are Michael, Rachel, Noah, and Thomas Gross. Michael has enrolled at NCSBS. Rachel will also be taking classes at the school. They come to us from Marion, North Carolina. Michael has already been preaching at Dysartsville for some time on Sunday mornings. They are excited about coming to the school and look forward to working in the Lord's vineyard.

Wednesday was a day of loading up a twenty-six foot U-Haul truck with their belongings. Michael's mother, brother, and Rachel loaded the truck. Thursday was a day of driving and unloading the truck. Thursday's experience was “easier” and quicker. Why? It's because members of Warners Chapel were there to help them unload the truck. I know that Michael and Rachel want to say “Thank You!” but so do I. With a lot of the younger men at camp it was going to be a long afternoon of unloading that truck.

But as is usually the case, Warners Chapel came through. A BIG THANK YOU! goes to David Moore, Rick Clemmons, Mark Clemmons, David Elam, Bill Carothers, Gina Harper, Richard Hamann and Jane Shepard. There were others who called as they had the opportunity to help and we appreciate them as well. On behalf of the Gross family and me, thank you Warners Chapel for a moving experience!

ELDERS CORNER:

“Two Percent Will Destroy”

One time I had trouble with mice. So I bought some D-Con. I noticed on the package that only two percent of its contents was actually poison and the rest was edible. Now if some educated mouse could read, he might reason: “But there is so much good in it, a little bit won’t harm me, and besides I’m hungry.” Yet all that good food didn’t do that poor creature much good because the little bit of poison either killed him or gave him some might nasty indigestion. The ninety-eight percent nourishment was useless if that two percent killed him! The ninety-eight percent was not enough to offset the two percent.

The makers of D-Con know they have to put much good-tasting food in before mice will be tempted to eat that little bit that kills them. This is parallel with a situation we find often in religion. Many feel that if there is so much good in their doctrines, a little bit of error won’t hurt them. But the devil is smart enough to give people enough of the truth to make his lies appear wholesome, but just enough error to condemn. No one will benefit from ninety-eight percent truth if there is two percent error mixed in with it. Man won’t go ninety-eight percent to heaven and two percent to hell: he’ll go to either one place or the other. Did not James say, “For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all” (James 2:10)? The person who rejects two percent of the truth of God is guilty, just like the person who rejects all. The wages of sin is death (Romans 6:23).
