A CORDIAL WELCOME AWAITS YOU

“Letting Your Light Shine”

In a certain mountain village in Europe some centuries ago, a nobleman wondered what kind of legacy he should leave his townspeople. At last, he decided to build them a church building. No one saw the complete plans for the building until it was finished. When the townspeople gather they marveled at its beauty and completeness. Then, someone asked, “Where are the lamps? How will it be lighted?” The nobleman pointed to some brackets in the walls. Then he gave to each family a lamp which they were to bring with them each time they came to worship. “Each time you are here the area where you are seated will be lighted,” the nobleman said. “Each time you are not here, the area will be dark. This is to remind you that whenever you fail to come to worship, some part of God’s house will be dark.”

The Bible says, “And let us consider one another in order to stir up love and good works, not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some, but exhorting one another and so much the more as you see the Day approaching.” Hebrews 10:24-25.

Come and worship with us, you see, there is more than one way of letting your light shine.

— Frank

ELDERS CORNER:

The Devil's Beatitudes

If the devil were to write his version of “The Beatitudes” in contrast to Matthew 5, it would probably say something like this:

1. Blessed are those who are too tired, too busy, too distracted to spend an hour or two once a week with their fellow Christians - they are my best workers.
2. Blessed are those Christians who wait to be asked and expect to be thanked - I can use them.
3. Blessed are the touchy who stop going to church - they are my missionaries.
4. Blessed are the trouble makers - they shall be called my children.
5. Blessed are the complainers - I'm all ears to them.
6. Blessed are those who are bored with the minister's mannerism and mistakes - for they get nothing out of his sermons.
7. Blessed is the church member who expects to be invited to his own church - for he is part of the problem instead of the solution.
8. Blessed are those who gossip - for they shall cause strife and divisions that please me.
9. Blessed are those who are easily offended - for they will soon get angry and quit.
10. Blessed are those who do not give their tithes and offerings to carry on the work of the Kingdom of God - for they are my helpers.
11. Blessed is he who professes to love God, but hates his brother and sister - for he shall be with me forever.
12. Blessed are those who don't study the Word of God - for in their lack of knowledge, I have strength.
13. Blessed are you who, when you read this, think it's about other people, and not yourself - I've got you too!

OUR SICK

Please Remember In Your Prayers

Mary Ellen Dull is presently experiencing some heart problems and is undergoing testing at this time.

It was reported that Anna Richards has contracted shingles. She is reported to be doing well.

Jane Shepard is doing well in her recovery from recent surgery. She was able to attend this past Wednesday evening's service.

Bonnie Landreth returned home from the beach and is recovering from her ankle surgery at a friend's home. If you wish to send her a note or card—send it to her address listed in the Work Book.

Continue to remember Paul Kirkpatrick as he continues to make good progress in his recovery from surgery.

An up-dated copy of the prayer list may be picked up on the credenza in the foyer.

PLEASE CHECK TO SEE IF THERE ARE ANY THAT NEED TO BE REMOVED FROM THIS LIST AND LET US KNOW.

In Sympathy

Our sympathy goes out to the Mike Edwards' Family in the passing of Mike on Thursday, September 1st. Arrangements are incomplete at this time.

Things to Think On....

1. Growing old is inevitable, growing UP is optional.
2. There is no key to happiness. The door is always open.
3. Faith is the ability to not panic.
4. Blessed are the flexible for they shall not be bent out of shape.
5. A grudge is a heavy thing to carry.
6. He who dies with the most toys, is still dead.
7. Silence is often misinterpreted, but never misquoted.
8. Do the math...count your blessings.
9. We do not remember days, but moments. Life is moving too fast - so enjoy your precious moments.
10. Surviving and living your life successfully requires courage. The goals and dreams you're seeking require courage and risk taking. Learn from the turtle, it only makes progress when it sticks out it's neck.
