"The churches of Christ salute you" Rm 16:16

Everyone Is Wrong About Something,

I came across this article on Facebook and I thought it was a great one for the article here.

"Everyone is wrong about something." Several years ago, I heard a Bible teacher say that simple sentence in a sermon or class, and it was the exact perspective shift I needed. Sure, I already knew that no one was perfect except for Jesus Himself, but somehow that had never translated completely and practically into real life.

That meant *I* was wrong about something - and probably even several (many??) things! Gulp!! It meant that I needed to learn more about humility. Because "pride goes before a fall." {Proverbs 16:18-19}

I needed to become more teachable. Because "He leads the humble in what is right, and teaches the humble his way." {Psalm 25:9}

You have to be humble to be teachable.

You have to be teachable to be pleasing to God.

Over and over again, the Bible tells us in stories and outright statements that God cannot stand a haughty spirit. "Whoever has a haughty look and an arrogant heart I will not endure." {Psalms 101:5b} We can remember the times that God humbled Nebuchadnezzar, Haman, King Saul, and even the devil himself.

We can just as easily be full of pride today. We find ourselves looking down on someone's messy house, who they voted for, what kinds of foods they give their kids, their lack of participation in church activities, what kind of clothes they wear, their poor grammar, etc.

It can get ugly. And I mean - WE can get ugly. When we look down our noses at things that people do differently from us (even if there's a biblical reason), we lose our compassion. We lose our willingness to love them and encourage them. We push them away.

But what about *my* messy house? What about the number of cookies *I* ate today? What about the times *I* didn't jump in and get involved with my congregation?

I HAVE NO REASON TO LOOK DOWN MY NOSE AT ANYONE. None of us do. Because a lack of humility is literally a sin in God's book.

It's a hard lesson to learn - but it's a necessary one. And it's one I'm sure I'll still be working on (with lots of God's help) until the end of my days.

Continued Article...

Recently I was studying about Mary, the mother of Jesus, and realizing just how humble her attitude was. When Gabriel told her that she had been chosen to be the mother of the Messiah, she could have said, "You know, *this* isn't really what I had envisioned for my life. I *want* to help you, but I just...can't. I'm sorry. Good luck finding someone else!"

But her beautiful response was, "Behold, I am a servant of the Lord; let it be to me according to your word." You know what that sounds like? "Let your will be done." Something that her son would say probably many times in his human lifetime, but most famously in the Garden of Gethsamane.

Jesus was the ultimate example of humility, and we can look to his earthly life as a supreme example of how to be humble. We can see that He was NOT a doormat. But that He never lacked compassion. And He submitted Himself to the Father in all things. We should all spend time in reading about His earthly ministry and pondering how *we* can pattern our attitude after His.

"Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility count others more significant than yourselves. Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others.

Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but emptied himself, by taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross."

{Philippans 2:3-8}
