"STRENGTH AND COURAGE"

God expects courage to be evidenced in His people. Moses and Joshua were commanded by God, as leaders of His people, to be both strong and courageous in the way they conducted themselves. In Deuteronomy 31:7-12 Moses is instructed to be strong and bold as he finished out his days. He is to instruct Joshua to do the same as he will lead the people into the land of Promise.

All of God's people are commanded to behave in the same manner. In God's mind there are to be no timid Christians. On at least three occasions God reminded His people to be both strong and courageous. Again, Psalm 27:14 says, "Wait on the Lord, be of good courage, and He shall strengthen your heart".

God is powerful and mighty and His people must not act in a cowardly or fearful way toward others. We must be bold and represent Him with power and strength, even when it may not be popular or "politically correct". The Bible says, "For God has not given us a spirit of fear but of power, and of love and of a strong mind". (2 Timothy 1:7) In today's world, Christians must provide the world with examples of strength and courage.

ELDERS CORNER:

What Will the Marker Say?

—Howell Ferguson

Everyone wants to be remembered. But how do we want to be remembered? What would you want your epitaph to say? Consider some possible epitaphs that could be said of the following Bible characters:

Jesus - “the Christ, the Son of the living God” (Matthew 16:16)

Dorcas - “full of good works and charitable deeds” (Acts 9:36)

Abraham - “the friend of God” (James 2:23)

Enoch - “and Enoch walked with God” (Genesis 5:24)

David - “a man after [God’s] own heart” (Acts 13:22)

Paul - “for me to live is Christ, and to die is gain” (Philippians 1:21)

But consider the following evil people and how their epitaphs might read:

Judas Iscariot - “Judas, which betrayed Him” (Matthew 26:25)

Rich fool - “Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee” (Luke 12:20)

Rich man - “Son, remember that in your lifetime you received your good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things; but now he is comforted and you are tormented” (Luke 16:25)

Demas - “Demas has forsaken me, having loved this present world” (2 Timothy 4:10)

Alexander the coppersmith - “did me much evil: the Lord reward him according to his works” (2 Timothy 4:14)

How we live will long out-live how long we live. Like Abel, we being dead will yet speak. Our epitaphs will be determined by what we do or do not do. What will your epitaph say?

“He being dead yet speaketh” Hebrews 11:4
