A CORDIAL WELCOME AWAITS YOU

JANUARY 30. 2011

JUST A PINCH

It was going to be a very busy day. There seemed to be strings attached to every minute. Hardly time for my morning devotions, I thought as I thanked God for His goodness and briefly shared problems and joys. Arising from my knees, I realized I had been talking to God, but thinking of other things.

This realization remained throughout the day--a day that didn't go too well. God had given me 24 hours, and I'd spared Him just a pinch of time, much as in the days of the Old West when many men carried a bag of gold dust and bargained for things they needed with a pinch of dust from the bag. For all God's benefits, I'd given him a pinch of my day.

God must get a lot of pinches, I thought. A pinch of time; a pinch of money; a pinch of prayer; a pinch of concern for His children; a pinch of worship; a pinch of loyalty; a pinch of love. But I've noticed that when troubles come we turn to God and ask for more than a pinch of His help.

God is so good to us. From now on we should think of giving Him a fairer exchange.

—Paul

ELDERS CORNER:

Recently we received a request from the Rockingham Church of Christ for help in supporting Dathan Bodie, one of the graduates of North Carolina School of Biblical Studies. Many of us got to know Dathan while he was a student here and know that he is a good man and dedicated gospel preacher. Rockingham is a small congregation that needs help in reaching out not only to the community there, but also to members of the church there who have over the years drifted away. Dathan has for the past several months been driving from Charlotte to Rockingham each Sunday to preach and do as much visiting and personal work as he can between the morning and evening services. We hope he and the congregation there are able to find enough financial support in addition to what we might be able to provide in order for him to be able to move there and work full time beginning in June when his son graduates from high school. Also, if this work does materialize, we hope to be able to take some of our NCSBS students and other willing members of this congregation to help in efforts to reach out and make contacts in that community.

As we have already set our budget for 2011, one way for us to meet this financial need is to set aside the contribution for the fifth Sunday in January (January 30) to be used in this effort or for other mission work if this work should not materialize. Please think and pray about the possibilities for this good work as you plan for your contribution for January 30.
