SISTER IDA PEGRAM PASSES:

On Friday night May 31st Sis. Ida Pegram passed from this life at 10:00 PM. We are all grieved at the passing of this beloved sister in Christ. May God richly bless and comfort those who are left behind.

DARRELL E. BEARD HERE JUNE 16th:

Bro. Darrell E. Beard will be here June 16th to investigate the work. Bro. Beard is now in Freed-Hardeman college in Henderson, Tennessee. His home is in Missouri. He is married. We hope that all of you will be present for all the services June 16th to hear this young man.

WHAT MUST I DO TO BE SAVED?

Friend, if you are an unsaved person, and are searching for the answer to this great question, will you not turn to the back of this bulletin and run the scripture references given there. Remember this is the answer the Bible Gives.

"ONCERS"

Our greatest problem is the large number of "oncners" that we have in the congregation. A "oncner" is a member(?) who believes that a Christian is pleasing God when he attends only one service a week.

There are two kinds of oncners. There is the "morning oncner" who thinks it is a most serious sin for a person to miss Sunday morning. He is unable to comprehend the excuses offered by those who miss Sunday morning worship.

There is an "evening oncner" too. He comes Sunday night ONLY. And he thinks it is equally as sinful for one to stay at home Sunday night. But he can find many excuses for missing the morning services. The sad thing about oncners is that they are all wrong. They violate the plain teaching of the Scripture and do not love the Lord as they should.

It is almost impossible to cure a oncner. The prescription is just more than they are able to take in their spiritually weak condition. A prescription for a oncner contains a few hypodermic injections of zeal. (They are so thick skinned that it is most difficult to administer this medication.) These injections must be followed with large doses of love. (Oncners are so sure that they are all right that they will seldom swallow this.) Finally, they require a continual STUDY Therapy. (The mere suggestion of Bible study to a oncner is frequently so revolting that he completely falls away and is never seen in services again.

SICK:

Sis. Grace Goin is still unable to be out. She is at home.

Mr. John Ebert is much, much better and is feeling real well. We are very happy that he is doing so much better.
