THEN AND NOW

There came unto the Lord one day
 One begging to be fed
 With only crumbs which chanced to fall
 From those who had the bread.

And did our Lord send her away
 With empty, longing hands?
 Ah, no, he richly satisfied
 Her hungry heart's demands.

Today are millions perishing
 Amidst sad famine's dearth
 While Christ says, "Give ye them to eat,"
 To us, the salt of earth.

To us, who are to light the world
 With good news, as he said,
 But, oh, how slow we are to share
 With them the Living Bread.

Nellie Hertzka Morehead.

"And they continued stedfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers." Acts 2:42

BE THOU FAITHFUL

Possibly the ten young people who just recently obeyed the gospel, are now confronted with questions similar to these: How am I to live steadfast in the faith? What duties have I to perform as a truly sincere Christian, so as to please God?

Our duties are many, if we are to continue to develop the individual Christian character after being baptized. In the scriptures we find: "But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them; and that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. All scripture is given by the inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works." 2 Tim. 3:14. "Likewise ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder. Yea, all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble. Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time: Casting all your care on him; for he careth for you. Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour: Whom resist steadfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world." 1 Peter 5:5. "Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. But shun profane and vain babblings, for they will increase more ungodliness. And their word will eat as doth a canker---" 2 Tim. 2:15-17.

"I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God. For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith. For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office: So we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another. Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith; Or ministry, let us wait on our ministering: or he that teacheth, on teaching; Or he that exhorteth, on exhortation: he that giveth, let him do it with simplicity; he that ruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness. Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evil: cleave to that which is good. Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honour preferring one another; Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord; Rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation, continuing instant in prayer; Distributing to the necessity of saints; given to hospitality, Bless them which persecute you: bless, and curse not. Rejoice with them that do rejoice and weep with them that weep." Rom. 12:1-15.

Let everyone of us so live that we may be sound in the faith; living examples to others who may be seeking the way unto salvation.
