How To Have A Successful Gospel Meeting

Wes Garland

This week, beginning this morning, starts our Gospel Meeting with Brant Stubblefield. But how do we make sure that it will be a great and successful one? Here are a few things to think about as we answer this question.

Pray about it - The reason that we need to pray about it is that we are giving this Gospel Meeting fully into the hands of God Who has the ability and power to turn something into an amazing opportunity. Can you imagine how much these lessons can change our lives and the lives of those who come and listen? Let’s pray about it!

Make sure you come each night - Like I said earlier, if you want to change your life for the better, we need to make it each night. It is kind of hard to apply something that you have never heard. At the same time, when you are here, you encourage those are who are here as well. Being a participant in something the congregation you are a member of is doing shows your involvement in the efforts we are making. This is key to being a member of a congregation.

Ask your friends and neighbors to come - We are trying to reach the lost with the saving Gospel of Jesus Christ. What better time to invite them than to a made-opportunity created to reach the area. Could you imagine the excitement that we can bring to someone else if the message from God reaches the souls of these visitors and they respond to the Gospel of Christ? Not only would it reach that one individual, but it would also impact and change others who are around them in their lives because of our simple invitation to a Gospel Meeting.

Apply the lessons to your life and then help others apply it to their lives - When you hear these lessons, apply them to your life so that you will be professing these truths with your life rather than just a hearer and recipient.

Will you help make this Gospel Meeting a successful one?
