A CORDIAL WELCOME AWAITS YOU

“A CLEAN SLATE”

Some folks say they don't make New Year's resolutions and others seem to really strive to make them and keep them. If you made them in 2010 for 2011, the question would be, "Did you keep any of those resolutions?" If you did, good for you! If you didn't, well, you have a clean slate for this year. Maybe you will revise the ones you didn't keep; maybe you will improve on them; maybe you'll make completely new resolutions.

Whatever the case may be, you have a new year to strive to improve your life. Why would anyone need to improve their life? One reason would be: to become more pleasing to God. Perhaps there are those who think they couldn't do anything more than what they're doing. Perhaps there are those who think they could never be good enough to please God. In error they conclude that that is a valid reason to not try.

David, king of Israel, knew what it was like to need a "clean slate." It probably was not around the New Year, neither was it just a resolution. He genuinely needed a clean slate, a new start, a clean heart. As you start 2012, if you need a fresh start in your service to God, in your Christian life, resolve to kneel in prayer and ask your heavenly Father, "Create in me a clean heart O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me." Psalm 51:10

OUR SICK Please Remember In Your Prayers

Jane Shepard was admitted to the Forsyth Medical Center this past Wednesday. It was determined that her health difficulty was caused by an interaction of some prescribed medications. She is doing well and was released this past Friday. —From Frank “We want to thank everyone for their prayers and really appreciate the love shown us.”

Roger Allen was reported to have undergone shoulder surgery this past Tuesday and doing well in his recovery.

Paul Kirkpatrick was reported to not be feeling well this past week.

Kim Sheet’s has been having some serious health difficulties recently.

It was reported that Shana Crump (attended Warners Chapel with her family some time ago and a relative of the Elam family) underwent surgery this past week and reported to be recovering satisfactorily.

Sofie Zuluaga, the Lewisville first grader who was reported to have cancer early in December. She underwent 4 hrs. surgery on Dec. 28th, when they removed her kidney, right adrenal gland, her appendix & lymph nodes surrounding the kidney. She will be in the hospital for about a week and tentatively scheduled to begin radiation on Jan. 7th or 8th. Keep her in your prayers, please. You may read about her treatments on Caringbridge.org/visit/sofiezuluaga.

Andy Santiago’s co-worker, Seth Burcham’s 5 year old son who was in the hospital with major bacterial infection has recovered sufficiently to be able to be released from the hospital this past week.
