A CORDIAL WELCOME AWAITS YOU

JUST DELAY...IT'S OKAY!

The mythical story is told that Satan had a meeting with three of his most successful henchmen: Resentment, Bitterness and Malice. Their task was to brainstorm ideas for stopping the success of the Lord's church. Because of increased efforts to evangelize the world, Satan and his boys were taking it on the chin.

Resentment has an idea. "Let's convince them that there is no God." Satan's reply was, "That will never work. They know there is a God."

Bitterness chimed in that "We should tell them that God no longer cares about right or wrong." Satan thought about this for a while and then said, That won't work either. They know that God cares, that's why they pray to Him so much."

The last to speak up was Malice. "I have the best idea that incorporates the other two. Let's let them go on thinking that there is a God and that he cares about right and wrong and He cares for them deeply, but we will lull them into believing they have all the time in the world."

Let me tell you Satan was beside himself with laughter. "This is great! What a wonderful idea!"

How many souls have been lost to procrastination and indecision? Many think that they have plenty of time to accept the Gospel call. Sadly, some wait until it is too late. Don't let that one be you.

Elders Corner:

BIG BEARS AND LITTLE BEARS; BIG PEOPLE AND LITTLE PEOPLE

Two men were standing talking to each other. One was huge—tall and burly, a man of great apparent strength. The other was small. Admiring the size of the larger man, the smaller one said, “You know, if I were as big and strong as you, I would not be afraid of anything. I’d go out in the woods and find the biggest bear and tear him limb from limb.” The big fellow replied, “You know, there are a lot of little bears in the woods. Maybe you should go tackle one of them.”

Likewise, many are just standing on the sidelines telling what they would do if only they had the abilities of others. But they do not have those abilities, so nothing gets done. What are your skills? It is important that each person make a careful, prayerful, and honest evaluation of himself, his time and resources, his strength, abilities, and attitudes (I Cor. 4:3-4). There are big bears and little bears, big works and little works, big people and little people. Are you ready to tackle some bears and do some works, or are you content to sit on the sidelines and wonder why other people are not doing more? The biggest bear may very well be the bear of “self.” Allow the Lord to help you make the tackle.

-Adapted from Article by Gerald Cowen

I Corinthians 3:4-10 For when one says, “I am of Paul” and another, “I am of Apollos,” are you not carnal?” (5)Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers through whom you believed, as the Lord gave to each one? (6)I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the increase. (7)So then neither he who plants is anything, not he who waters, but God who gives the increase. (8)Now he who plants and he who waters are one, and each one will receive his own reward according to his own labor. (9)For we are God’s fellow workers; you are God’s field, you are God’s building. (10)According to the grace of God which was given to me, as a wise master builder I have laid the foundation, and another builds on it. But let each one take heed how he builds on it.
