A CORDIAL WELCOME AWAITS YOU

“The Man in the Pit”

*A man fell into a pit and couldn't get himself out. A subjective person came along, saw him in the pit and said, “I feel for you down there.” An objective person came by next, saw him in the pit and said, “It's logical that someone would fall down there.” A “Pharisee” came along and said; “Only bad people fall into a pit.” A mathematician calculated how the man fell into the pit. A news reporter wanted an exclusive on the story about the pit and how the man fell into it. A fundamentalist said, “You deserve your pit.” An IRS agent came along and wanted to know if he was paying taxes on the pit. A self-pitying person said, “You haven't seen anything until you've seen my pit.” An optimist said, “Don't worry, things will get better.” A pessimist said, “Don't worry, things will get worse.” But Jesus, seeing the man, took him by the hand and lifted him out of the pit. The Bible says that Jesus came “to seek and save that which was lost.” (Luke 19:10).

If you see the man in the pit, what would you do? If you are the man in the pit, come worship with us and learn how to be lifted out of it.

— Frank
