NEWS and NOTES

Richard Harper and Lynette Jones were united in marriage Friday, December 27.

The infant son of Mr. & Mrs. Willis Reeves was buried in the cemetery at Warner's Chapel Saturday, December 21.

1957 is fast drawing to a close. It is a good time for us to stop and take stock of what we have done this past year. Have we done all for the church we could? Has our attendance been good at all the services? If not, let's do something about it in '58.

"Have not I commanded thee? Be strong and of a good courage; be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the Lord thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest." (Joshua 1:9)

This was a very important event in the history of the Israelite nation. Moses, the faithful servant of God and leader of the Jewish people, had just died. Now Joshua, who had helped Moses, was to take the leadership. Consider the great task that was before them. They were to cross the Jordan River and drive out at least seven tribes, any one of which was larger and more powerful than small Israel. It would be an impossible job without the help of God. Surely then, these words must have been very encouraging to Joshua.

Likewise, we are facing a very important time in our lives. Soon we shall cross over into a new year. A year of challenges, yet a bright and encouraging one because of the fact that it is new. Possibly this year has been spotted with our mistakes; so we look hopefully forward to 1958. We will be faced with challenges just as Joshua was, but we should realize that God is with us "whithersoever thou goest." Remember the words of Paul, "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me."
DEB

WHEN IS A CHRISTIAN NOT A CHRISTIAN?

When a farmer stops plowing his land, stops planting the seed, and stops harvesting, he has stopped being a farmer, because he has stopped doing those things that identify him as a farmer.

When a Christian stops doing those things that identify him as a Christian, he stops being the Christian that he ought to be.
